Boyle County Court, May Term, 1862

I Jno. F. Zimmerman, Clerk of the Boyle County Court, do certify that the foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Malinda Rout dec'd (a.f.w.c.) was at the above Term of the Boyle County Court, produced in open Court, and the same proven by the oath of Jas. Garrett a subscribing witness thereto, who testified that the said will was signed and published as her last will and testament by said decedent in his presence and the presence of John Cowan another subscribing witness thereto. And as such it was ordered to be recorded. Which has been truly done in my office this 23rd day of May 1862

Att. Jno. F. Zimmerman, C.C.C.
By B. F. Zimmerman D.C.B.C.C.

In the name of God, Amen. I, Isabella Reed, wife of Thomas Reed of Boyle County, State of Kentucky, being of sound mind, knowing the uncertainty of life, and anxious to dispose of my estate, do make ordain & publish the following, as my last will and Testament.

I do hereby will & devise to my Husband Thomas Reed, during his life, all the property and estate, I own and am entitled to, consisting of lands, Slaves & personal estate, my said Husband is to have & enjoy the said estate, during his life, and after his death, the said Estate is to go to and be vested in my daughter, Jane Clemens Shackles during her life and after her death, to her issue or descendants.

Whatever estate my daughter takes under this will is to be vested in & held by my friend Thomas Barbee as her Trustee, she to have the use of the same or profits or rents & hires of the same as she may think proper. The right to sell & dispose of the estate during her life is not given except by & with the consent of the said Thomas Barbee, and if the said Barbee should die or refuse to act, then the Judge of the Boyle Circuit Court in open Court, upon the motion of any friends, is vested with power to appoint a Trustee for my daughter.

If my Husband after my death should think proper to advance to our daughter any property or estate, that will pass to her after his death, he is hereby empowered to make to her any advancement he may think proper. She receiving and holding the same according to this my will.

If my daughter should depart this life, without child or descendant living at the time of her death, before the death of my Husband, my Husband in that event is clothed with power to dispose of my estate as he may think proper, the same in the event of my daughter, dying without descendants, is his and it is all willed to him.

In Testimony whereof, the said Isabella Reed, hath signed, executed, published and sealed, this as her last will & Testament, this 8th day of March, 1859

Teste,

Isabella Reed, ~~Isabella~~

I Margaret Morrow of the town of Danville and commonwealth of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and ordain, this my last will and testimony, hereby revoking all others. I direct my just debts, if there are any and my funeral expenses to be first paid before any division or distribution of my property. I desire to be buried by the side of my deceased husband, in the Danville Cemetery. I give and bequeath to my son William S. Morrow and my daughter Ann Eliza Morrow, jointly, the house and lot now occupied by me, with the appurtenances, for the term of three years, next after my death, unless they shall jointly direct that said property, shall be sold, and the proceeds divided, as herein after directed, at any time before the expiration of said time. At the expiration of said time or sooner if directed as aforesaid my executor shall the said property and divide the proceeds thereof in the following manner to wit: We shall first of all pay the sum of two thousand dollars, to my said daughter Ann Eliza. The remainder of said proceeds he shall divide into four equal parts, one of which parts I give to my son William S. aforesaid, one of which I give to my son Thomas, and one of them I give to my grand daughter Margaret. Next the child of my daughter Mary Jane Hoyt. But my executor shall retain the legacy in his hands & manage it for the benefit of my said grand daughter until she arrives at the age of eighteen years: the remaining part I give to my son Wilson S. Morrow in the event of his being alive and claiming it within one year after the sale of the property. Otherwise I give this portion equally to my said daughter Ann Eliza and my said sons William S. and Thomas. To my said daughter Ann Eliza, I give and bequeath all the household appurtenances of every kind and description of which I shall be possessed, including every sort & kind of moveable and perishable property, in and about my said residence, and upon the said lot or which usually appertains to, or was kept or used there on. To my son Alexander S. Morrow I give and bequeath a Bible and hymn book being mournfully
