Will of Jane Dunn

In the name of God Amen. I, Jane Dunn, of the County of Boyle, Lincoln, State of Kentucky, being advanced in age, in good health and of sound mind and disposing memory do make, ordain and publish this as my last will & testament in the form and manner to wit

I will my soul to God, who gave it and my body to the earth from whence it came, to be buried in a Christian like manner. I will that all my just debts, if any, and burial expenses be first paid.

I give and bequeath to Robert Dunn, my Grand Son and Son of Samuel Dunn, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars in money and two new blankets, two sheets, one white counterpane and one quilt not quilted. Said household articles are in the hands of my daughter Sophia Wingate.

I give and bequeath to my Grand Son Williamson Dunn, Son of Samuel Dunn, the sum of One hundred dollars.

I give and bequeath to my Grand Son, Marion Dunn, Son of Samuel Dunn, the sum of One hundred dollars.

I give to my Grand Son, James H. Dunn, Son of Samuel Dunn, the sum of Fifty Dollars and my gold watch.

I give and bequeath to my Grand Son, Samuel C. Dunn, Son of Samuel Dunn Fifty Dollars.

I give and bequeath to my Son Oliver Dunn, Son of Samuel Dunn, the sum of Fifty Dollars.

My will and desire is that my executors hereinafter mentioned pay over the several amounts of money herein willed, to my Son Samuel Dunn's children and the interest that may accrue therein as my said Grand children may arrive at the age of twenty one years, unless they should marry at an earlier age, then and there case my will is that my Executors pay over the same to each that may be entitled to enable them to prepare for house keeping.

I will and bequeath to Susan Jane Dunn and Margaret Francis Dunn, daughters of my Son Samuel Dunn, Fifty dollars each and if either of my Grand Son's alive named should die before they marry or attain full age, then the Legacy to the one that dies is to pass to and vest in the surviving brother & full Sisters, Susan Jane Dunn.

I give and bequeath to my grand children, Williamson Dunn and Nancy Dunn, children of my Son Davis Dunn, the sum of Fifty Dollars each to be paid over with its interest when they ~~attain~~ attain the age of twenty one years, unless they or one of them should marry before that, and upon their marriage, my Executors are directed to pay over the same, but should either my Grand Son, Williamson above named, or my Grand daughter Nancy above named die before they marry or arrive at the age of twenty one years, then my will is that the same be paid over to their Sister Francis Jane Dunn, that is if either dies, the share of the one dying to go. Francis Jane Dunn I also give said Francis Jane Dunn my desk and tea chest, the same now in possession of her Father Davis Dunn and I also give to my said Grand daughter, Nancy Dunn, my bedstead & settee, now in her Father's possession it is further my will that the one hundred dollars herein devised to Davis's children to be paid out of what he owes me.

My will is that my daughter Sophia Wingate have the use of one bed and bed clothing, my silver table spoons & silver tea spoons, my Loom and appurtenances, and one big Bul, now in her possession during her life, and after her death to go to her children, and the same is not to be sold by her or any other person. I also give to my daughter Sophia Wingate, the interest in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, which sum Executors are to put at interest and pay the same over to my said daughter annually, and at her death, the said one hundred and fifty dollars is hereby devised and willed to the children of my said daughter Sophia Wingate. It is my will that my Executors sell all my property & estate of every kind except such as is specifically devised by this will and if there shall be any thing left him the sale of my property & estate, and for the collection of what is owing me after paying and discharging the Legacies and devised herein mentioned, then my will is that the residue be placed at interest by my Executors, and the interest annually paid over to my said daughter Sophia Wingate, and after her death said residuary sum, what ever it may be is hereby devised and willed to the children of said Sophia Wingate. I hereby nominate and appoint Samuel Livers and James Blair Executors to this my will.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal & do publish this as my last will and testament this 29th day of June 1849.
