In the name of God, amen. I Isaac O Canardale of Boyle County Ky. Considering the uncertainty of life & certainty of death, being of sound mind & memory, do make & publish this my last will & testament in manner following.

It is my wish & desire that all my just debts be paid out of the first money that may come into the hands of my Executor or Administrator. It is my will and wish that if my sons hereafter named should be under the age of sixteen years at the time of my death, that no sale, or division of my estate shall be made until my youngest living son arrives at the age of sixteen years.

I will and bequeath to my daughter Phoebe Canardale a negro girl Sally, which girl Sally is now about eight or nine years old.

If my daughter Phoebe above named should die without legal heirs then in that event the said negro girl Sally with her increase if any, is to be equally divided between the balance of children.

It is my will & wish that when my youngest living son arrives at the age of sixteen years that all my estate real personal and mixed of whatever kind or description shall be sold in such manner as will be most advantageous in such estate as my Executor or Administrator, may think best. The proceeds be equally divided amongst my children. I name Canardale, Prustley Canardale Sally Dodd, Phoebe Canardale, Matley Maria Jefferson, Bybee Benjamin F. & Elizabeth Canardale, or such of them as may then be living. I nominate and appoint my friend Abram S Catmell Executor of this my last will and testament. Given under my hand and seal this 1st day of May 1845.

Memorandum. That on the 12th day of July 1850. Mrs Jane Martin of the County of Boyle & State of Kentucky, being sick of the sickness whereof she died on the same day, at her dwelling house in said County did declare and make her last will and testament nuncupative, in the words or of the like substance that is to say.

I want Susan & Mary Frances each to have a bed" or being told that the whole of the property in her possession, except the land belonged to her, and that she had a right to dispose of it, and give it to whom she pleased, she answered and said, "That the children meaning Williamson Martin's children, had merited for it and they ought to have it, and she wished them, (the said children) to have it."

The foregoing words or to the like effect the said Mrs Jane Martin declared in our presence, with the intention that the same should be her last will and testament, whereof she desired us to bear testimony.

Which was reduced to writing this 15th day of writing this 15th day of July 1850

I James Catmell do make and publish this my last will and testament. I wish my Executors to pay all my just debts out of any money I may have on hand, at the time of my death, or out of such as may be due me. To my wife Phoebe Catmell I bequeath as follows.

It is my will that she shall have and occupy my house as long as she ^{thence} lives, all the furniture in the house except such as I may hereinafter specify, also the kitchen furniture, the loom, a large and small wheel, my carriage and two such horses as she may choose, one yoke of oxen & cart, two milk cows, twenty sheep & ten head of sheep, hogs and a sufficiency of provisions of such as may be on hand to last the ballance of the year after my death I wish her to have choice of a negro boy, also a negro girl old Kate & her two young children Lucinda and her youngest child. all of which I properly she is to have and enjoy during her life. I will to her to dispose of as she chooses the amount of a note due by her brother William Keaton who interests due on it. and such money as she may have on hand at the time of my death, also her bureau. It is my wish that she and Logan shall live together and cultivate such land as I may leave them, and she to have one third of what is made should she desire so much, and I do entrust upon all my children to be kind and attentive to their mother, and see to it that she shall want for nothing, for she has been a kind mother to them.

To my sons Gabriel & John, I will in trust for my son James this family, the following property. one hundred acres of land off my farm on the west side of Salt River, as run off by J. P. Mitchell, James to have the right to live on the same and use and cultivate it, and have what he makes. but should James not be satisfied to live on said place, the trustees shall have the power to sell the same and purchase some other place for James but to be deeded to Gabriel & John in trust for him & his family. I also give to them in trust for James this family, the following negroes. Billy, Sarah his wife & Stephen their child and Anthony. I hold a mortgage on some of James property. I wish it to remain as it is, but James & his family to use the property.

The other above together with about one thousand dollars which I have paid for James, will him make about equal my other children.

To my son Robert I will one hundred and sixty five acres of land on the south of my farm, to commence at such point in the trust line on Salt river, as will, by running a straight line eastwardly, just leave the Orchard to Logan and continue said line to the fence at the woods, & then such course to my line next S. Millers & as will make the quantity of one hundred & sixty five acres - the land on the east of the Copeland road to be in Roberts part. I also will to him the horse he now rides also his choice (after his mother) of a negro boy by his paying valuation of the boy to my executor also Lucinda & her youngest child at the death of his mother.

To my son Logan I will the residue of the tract of land on which I live (except one acre to include the graveyard) believed to be two hundred & twenty five acres. I also will to him the following negroes. Old Peter, Peter & his wife and Kitty ann. also one horse also his choice of a negro boy after his mother & Robert have chosen by his paying valuation for him to my Executors also two large and two small fowls, and two acres for the use of his mother and him.

I will to Gabriel and John in trust for James and to Robert and Logan a tract of land in the knobs containing about one hundred and thirty five acres the same deeded to me by Walton. I wish my wife to give to Robert & Logan whenever they may desire it the same amount of bed and bedding that I gave to my other children.

I will that one acre of land shall be reserved the title to be in my Executors for a burying ground to be laid off so as to include the present grave yard.

I live to my son Gabriel the negro boy Henry now in his Possession

I now consider that I have made Gabriel John & Sally Wharton equal and what I have given them would amount to about twenty five hundred dollars each. And I now will to them all the residue of my Estate of whatever kind not above disposed of together with the property devised to my wife for life, at her death. It is my will that ^{should} any of my children have paid or now be bound for any money for James the same shall be paid to them by my Executors out of any money on hands or out of any due me - and I do request and desire my children should they have to sell any of the negroes to select good masters and not separate husband and wife or parent and child. - My last admonition to them all is to keep clear of law with one another and live in peace & friendship.

I do hereby nominate and appoint as Executor of this my last will and testament my sons Gabriel & John and my son-in-law J. R. Wharton. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 16th day of June 1846
