Att.

Thos B. Nichols, CLK.

In the name of God, Amen. I Jeremiah Wade of the County of Boyle being sick and weak in body, but of sound and disposing memory for which I thank God, and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life, and being desirous to dispose of such worldly Estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with, I give and bequeath the same in manner following, viz.,

1st. I desire all my just debts to be paid, and to enable my Executor and Executors to do the same, I desire after my decease that all just dues to me may be collected by my said Executor & Executors and applied to that purpose, and what may then remain unpaid I desire they may immediately make from a sale of such part of my slaves and perishable property as will pay all my just debts.

2nd. After the payment of my debts and funeral expenses, I give to my wife Mary Wade for and during her natural life all and singular my Estate both personal and real, to use it to the best advantage in her judgement for her support and the raising, clothing and educating my children but she is not to make sale of any of my slaves or land for that purpose but to use them otherwise the most interesting in her judgement—for her own, and the benefit of my children.

3rd. As my children becomes of age or marries ~~with their or portions~~ my desire is my said wife may give them off such parts or portions of the Estate I leave with her, or the increase thereof as she in her judgement may deem right and just.

4th. As it is possible, my said wife may deem it most proper to change her condition by intermarriage after my decease—a right I do not wish her to be debarred of—and in that event my desire is that she shall have allotted to her for and during the term of her natural life the one third part of my Estate or she may at her own election take in her own right an equal share or child's part with my children to have and to hold and dispose of as she may deem most to her advantage.

5th. After the demise of my said wife, my desire is that all and singular the Estate real and personal that may remain or be on hand may be sold at a reasonable credit, and the net proceeds thereof be equally divided among all my children—or their children—accounting for any particular advancement made either by me or their mother at any time to either or any of them.

6th. As I hereby loan or give all my Estate of every description to the entire control of my wife during her widowhood or the term of her natural life over all my Estate. The County Court of Boyle is therefore authorised by this my last Will and Testament to grant her all necessary authority as my Executor to execute this my last Will and Testament without requiring from her bond and security.

7th And lastly. I do hereby constitute and appoint my friends W^m and Seneca W. Wade Executors of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills or Testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 14th day of December 1844. Jeremiah Wade (Seal)

Attest,

Thos B. Nichols, Clerk.

Elias. Fishers

(Will)

I, Elias Fisher of the County of Boyle and State of Kentucky do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament—

First. My Will and desire is that all my just debts be punctually paid—

Second. I will and bequeath to my wife Sarah Fisher for and during her natural life two hundred and fifty acres of the tract of land whereon I now live including my dwelling house Spring &c. Also the following named slaves, Jeremiah, Richard, Mary, Lifer, Thomas, West, and Jordan. Also four Cows and calves, two work horses, all my farming utensils and as many hogs and sheep as may be adjudged necessary for the use of her family. Also all my household and kitchen furniture except what is hereinafter disposed of— But if my said wife should ever marry after my decease then in that event my will is that she have only one hundred acres of land during her life the other property above mentioned to be retained by her as above stated—

Third. I will and bequeath to my sons Charles B. Fisher and James D. Fisher each as much bedding and furniture as my other children have severally had so as to make them all equal in the article of bedding—

Fourth. I give to my son James D. Fisher my Pean mare in consideration of services rendered me, also two Cows and Calves—

Fifth. I give to Nancy Christopher a young horse head worth fifty dollars also a saddle and bridle to be paid for out of my Estate—

Sixth. I give to Hunter Southworth a horse beast provided he takes care of the Estate that falls to him from his father and if he should not take care of said Estate then I give him a Bull Calf instead of a horse—

Seventh. My six first children (to wit) Nancy Byers, Polly Williams, Thurey Fisher (wife of Stephen Fisher), Sarah Doors, Susan Doors, and Elias Fisher Sr has received from the Estate of their grandfather John Butler, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars— And in addition I will and bequeath to them two tracts of land I own on Buck Creek in Lincoln County one of two hundred and seventy five acres, the other two hundred acres— Also one tract of one hundred and fourteen acres lying in Boyle County adjoining the land of John Whelan— also my negro woman Esther, and Julia and a man Lewis to be equally divided among them with this exception that Nancy Byers is to receive one hundred and forty dollars less than the others I having paid that amount towards building a house for Edmund Byers her husband—

And further it is my will and I so order and direct that whatever land, Negroes, money or other property Nancy Byers, Polly Williams, Thurey Fisher (wife of Stephen Fisher), Sarah Doors, Susan Doors and Elias Fisher Sr may receive under this or any other clause of my will or in any way of my Estate shall be for the exclusive use and benefit of them the said Nancy Byers, Polly Williams, Thurey Fisher (wife of Stephen Fisher), Sarah Doors, Susan Doors and Elias Fisher Sr during their natural life, and at their death to go to their children—

Eighth. It is my will and desire that my son James D. Fisher remain and live with his mother as long as she lives and at her death that he James D. Fisher have seven my five acres of the tract of land whereon I now live to be so laid off as to include the house and Spring and an equal proportion of woodland, and that the residue be divided between my three children as follows to Charles B. Fisher sixty five acres, the balance to be divided equally between Amanda Wilkitt and Cynthia Deer—

But should my wife marry then the above mentioned division of land is to take place except as to the quantity of one hundred acres which is in that event reserved to my said wife—

I, also will and bequeath to my last four mentioned children to be equally divided among them my tract of land called the frying pan tract on Dix River— Also fifty acres adjoining my two hundred acre tract on Buck Creek on the East side—

At the death of my wife I, also will and bequeath to my said four last mentioned
