Will of John Durham.

In the name of God, Amen! I, John Durham of Boyle County, being of sound mind but advanced in age do make and publish this my last will and Testament.

First: I will and desire that all my just debts shall be paid as soon after my death as may be convenient to my executors. Second. I will and bequeath to my wife during her natural life all that portion of my tract of land on which I now live, lying East of the following line commencing at a stone in Walkers line, corner to my old tract, thence South or nearly so to a stone near my Spring branch, thence up said branch to a stone, which I have placed for a corner, thence South or nearly so to a stone in Mitchells line, placed there by me as a corner, said tract to include my dwelling house and also the land lately purchased by me from George Proctor, supposed to contain in all about one hundred and fifteen acres. Together with all my farming utensils, my household and kitchen furniture, also two head of horses, six head of cattle, twelve head of sheep, & twenty head of hogs, also a sufficiency of provisions which may be on hand to do her during the remainder of the year after my death. Also her choice of my negro men and my girl Ann - and two hundred dollars in cash.

The balance of my ^{personal} estate I wish sold and after paying my debts, the balance to be disposed of as I shall hereinafter direct.

Thirdly: I have heretofore given and deeded to my daughter Phoebe Cuent, and to my son Jeremiah and to my sons John & Jesse each one hundred and sixty acres of land in the State of Indiana. And I have sold one hundred and sixty acres of land in Indiana which was intended for my daughter, Elizabeth Caldwell, and vested the proceeds in a tract of land in this County for her benefit on which she and her husband now ~~reside~~ live and as I have not deeded any to my son Samuel, I do will to him and his heirs one tract of land containing one hundred and sixty acres, lying in the District of Terrehaute in the County of Parks and State of Indiana, being in the North East quarter of Section twenty eight in Township seventeen North range six West.
