Will of Joseph Yager, decd.

In the name of God Amen, I Joseph Yager do make and publish this my last will and Testament as follows - (to wit) In the first place it is my will that all my debts to be paid, Indly - It is my desire that my Estate both real and personal be sold as soon as practicable after my death and divided between my children John Yager, Nicholas Yager, Daniel Yager, Joseph Yager and Polly Elliott in the following manner to wit: My Daughter Polly Elliott receiving two shares and my sons as above named receiving one share each. That is my Estate be divided in six parts and my Daughter Polly receive two parts and my sons one part each, and it is my will that the share of my daughter be placed in the hands of a trustee for the benefit of her and her children and in no way liable to the claim or disposal of her husband Herman Elliott and it is my desire that my Daughter shall select a Trustee who shall have full power to vest her part of my Estate in whatever property she may wish and and surrender full possession to her at his discretion - My reason for giving my Daughter a greater share of my Estate than my sons is in consideration of the services she has rendered the family in raising her crippled sister for a considerable time then her Mother for years and lastly her kindness and attention to me in my infirmity - Whereas I have heretofore made advancements of Property and money to my before named children it is not my intention that they be charged with any of such advancements heretofore named. And I do hereby empower who may be selected by my children to carry out this will, to sell at public auction all my

Estate and convey the same and divide the proceeds according to the provisions herein made. In Testimony of which I have hereunto subscribed my name this 20th Decr 1850
