I make this my last will. I wish my wife to have all my furniture and other property of that kind.

I own a full-one-half of the Tribune Printing Office in Danville together with one-half of the accounts from August 1848 to October 1858. I owe some tax to the State from the Clerk's office, but my good fee bills and notes are more than abundant to pay it, I may be bound for some other debts of the Tribune office, but if of the good accounts which I left there were very much more than sufficient to pay all for which any claims could come on me, and I wish those accounts to be appropriated to that purpose, so that my furniture and interest in the printing office will be left for my family.

At as early a day as possible after my decease, I wish my interest in the printing office to be sold, and the proceeds secured to my wife and children - taking notes with good security from purchasers so that the money can be realized at once & needed by my family.

I desire my friends, W. D. Moore or M. J. Durham, assisted by my father to carry out these desires settling up my business promptly and securely, what little I have safely to my wife and children, and hope my requests will receive from them needful attention.

Oct. 20. 1858.

Jas. F. Zimmerman,

1860, April 3. My interest in the Tribune office being still continued in the new office. I hereby ratify and approve the foregoing.

will is to be vested in & held by my friend Thomas Barbee as her Trustee, she to have the use of the same or profits or rents & hires of the same as she may think proper. The right to sell & dispose of the estate during her life is not given except by & with the consent of the said Thomas Barbee,
