6th - Sixth my will is that the legacy herein bequeathed to Mary E. Owens and Eliza Owens shall be paid over to my wife, Priscilla Bolling, and remain in her hands until they are entitled to receive it - She paying no interest, nor is any security to be required of her - And in the same manner my said wife is to hold the share of F. M. Bolling, until he applies for it and if he should not apply for it within five years from the date of my decease, his legacy is then to be equally divided among my other legacies, as my other estate is directed to be divided and should F. M. Bolling apply after such division should be made, then my will is that each of my legacies shall refund to him the amount so received by them without interest - I also will and direct that the legacy herein bequeathed to R.R. Bolling shall be held by my wife in trust for the use of said R.R. Bolling, and by her to be paid over to him or for him at any time or times and at such times and in such manner as she may think fit and proper, and in this and in no other case is any security to be required of my said wife, Priscilla Bolling -

Seventh - I will and direct that the share of my estate herein bequeathed to my son J. P. M. Bolling be paid over to him John L. Bailey in trust for the use of J. P. M. Bolling and his wife and children - And the said John L. Bailey is here by appointed a trustee for that purpose, with full power and authority to use said fund as he may think best for the uses aforesaid - he may vest it in real estate, either in or out of this State, taking care to have the title made to the children of the said J. P. M. Bolling, or otherwise use it as he may think best -

8th - Eighth - At the death of my wife the property bequeathed to her for life, which is then remaining, I will that it be sold and proceeds divided among my children as above directed in the first division -

Ninth and lastly, I appoint my two sons J. L. Bolling and R.R. Bolling, the Executors of this my last Will and Testament with full power and authority to sell and make conveyances of the estate directed to be sold -

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 14th day of May 1855 -
