

I give to my son Robert A. Mook Two thousand Seven Hundred dollars Any note or notes I hold on him to be paid to him in part of this legacy. I have heretofore given to my son John I. Mook and William R. Mook twenty seven hundred ^{dollars} each in land.

After the payment of my debts and funeral expenses & the foregoing legacies I give all the balance of my estate both real and Personal to be equally divided between my sons John I. Mook, Ezeiel F. Mook and William R. Mook.

I hereby appoint my son John I. Mook a Trustee to receive and appropriate the legacy I have herein left to my Daughter Rebecca M. Cox desiring him to lay out the money in such land as he may think best for her. The land to be hers during her life and at her death to belong to her Children.

I hereby appoint my son John I. Mook a Trustee to receive the six hundred dollars herein bequeathed to my Grand Daughter Sally Ann Owen and appropriate it as he may think most conducive to her interest & comfort.

It is my wish that Neither of my sons John I. Mook or William R. Mook shall be charged any interest or rent for the use of the Farms they are living on.

Lastly I constitute and appoint my Neighbour Asa Smith and my son John I. Mook my Executors of this my last will and Testament & request the Court not to require of them security.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of December 1852

Witnesses

Asa Smith

O. Garnett

A. H. Bowman,

Randolph Mook

State of Kentucky
Boyle County

I, John B. Akin, Clerk of the Boyle County Court do certify that the foregoing Instrument of Writing, purporting to be the last will and Testament of Randolph Mook decd. was this produced in open Court, and proven by the oaths of Asa Smith, O. Garnett, and A. H. Bowman subscribing witnesses thereto to be the true last Will and Testament of said Randolph Mook, decd. and ordered to be recorded; which is done accordingly. Given under my hand this 19th day of September 1853

John B. Akin Clerk

Martin Lay— Unexecuted Will Memorandum

That on the 28th day of Sep. in the year 1853, Martin Lay, of the County of Boyle, being sick, of whose sickness thereof he died on the same day, at his Dwelling House, in said County, did make and declare his last Will & Testament, Unexecuted, in these or words of like substance, that is to say:—

I desire that the Contract by which I have disposed of the Tract of Land on which I reside, shall remain in full force and effect, I will here bequeath unto my Brother-in-law John Gordon my Gray Horse & Saddle, provided he shall remain with my wife until he shall be of age, and to my wife Marcy, I give all that remains of my estate after my just debts are paid; & that Mark Purdon be my Executor. These words or to the like effect, the said Martin Lay, deceased in presence of the subscribers with intention that the same should be his last Will and Testament whereof he desired them to bear testimony, which we have recorded to writing, this 29th day of September 1853.

W. J. Polk Sec. S.

Caroline F. Purdon

State of Kentucky
Boyle County

I John B. Akin Clerk of the Boyle County Court, do certify that the foregoing Instrument of Writing, purporting to be the Unexecuted Will of Martin Lay Decd. was this day produced in the Court for record, and upon viewing the evidence of W. J. Polk and Caroline F. Purdon which Will was by them signed and dated on the 29th day of September 1853. It was ordered that the same be established and admitted as the last Will and Testament of said Martin Lay, decd. and ordered to be recorded as such. Which is accordingly done in my Office

Given under my hand this 17th day of October 1853.

John B. Akin Clerk