Samuel S.

Moore's Will

I, Samuel S. Moore of the County of Boyle do make and publish this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills—

1st, It is my will that my Executors shall as speedily as possible collect all debts which may be due me; and proceed to pay off out of the same or any money which may be on hand at my death, all debts which I may justly owe.

2nd, It is my desire that after the payment of all just debts, whatever money may remain shall be equally divided among all my children, my wife Mary Moore and my little grand child Sarah Ann, L. Durham— The part going to the said Sarah Ann L. Durham to be placed in the hands of my wife, and there to remain during the natural life of my wife, or until the child arrives at twenty one years of age, my wife to keep said money and to be charged no interest on the same, but to raise said child without charge and in case of the death of my wife before the child arrives at twenty one years of age my Executors to take charge of said money and loan the same at interest until the child arrives at twenty one years of age and then pay said money over to said child, but in the event of said child dying without heirs of her body said money to return to my heirs—

3rd, It is my will that my wife Mary Moore shall have and enjoy my mansion house during her life also an equal interest with my son John in the garden orchard and spring and lots around the house, and also that she shall have and use and occupy during her life the whole of that portion of land which I shall will to my grand child Sarah A. L. Durham, my wife also to have the whole of the house hold and kitchen furniture save and except such as I may hereafter dispose otherwise she also to have twenty head of Sheep, twenty hogs, four of my choice horses, eight head of cattle, and all of my farming utensils— she to have my negro woman Jane and her increase after my death, also my negro boy Ellick, also girl Maria and her increase after my death— and after the death of my wife the negroes left to her as dower and all other property of which she may die possessed to be sold and the proceeds equally divided among all my children then living and should any have died leaving children such children to receive their parents portion, my grand child Sarah A. L. Durham to receive a part as one of my children— but to return to my heirs should she die childless—

4th To my son William I give and bequeath one hundred and fourteen acres of land where he now lives, as surveyed for him by Clayton Montgomery— except the following alteration which I make to give a spring to William—

The line to run as laid off by S. Montgomery until reaching within thirty five yards of Williams wheat house as it now stands, thence such course and such distance as will give to him the tanyard spring crossing the branch and running down the branch twenty feet below his rats and thence North 74 East to the line as run by said Montgomery, and then running with said line such distance as by leaving said line and cornering with Benj. Moore will give to the lot of land intended for Sarah A. L. Durham the same quantity as has been taken off of her lot to give water to William— The above on condition that said William shall give twelve & half feet the whole length of said line for a road except through the tanyard lot— but he is to keep two good gates at said lot and a road of twenty five feet under the bluff through said lot—

5th, To my son Benjamin I will one hundred and forty acres of land as surveyed by Clayton Montgomery for him adjoining William on the North—

6th, To my son Simeon I give one hundred and two acres adjoining Benjamin on the North as surveyed for him by C. Montgomery, he to leave 12 1/2 feet on the line between him & Samuel for a road forever—

7th, To my son Samuel I give one hundred and six acres adjoining Simeon on the West as survey for him by Montgomery— he to leave 12 1/2 feet on the line between him and Simeon for a road forever—

8th, To my daughter Elizabeth Weeden and her children, I give one hundred and forty six acres off of the northern part of my land the line to commence in Benjamin's line and run parallel with my Southern settlement line and run through to my western line—

9th, The remainder of my land to be equally divided or as near as may be as follows I desire that in the division to commence at some point in my Southern settlement line and run such course as will give to John's part all the springs near the house, and all the inclosures and lots around the same— and then a direct line to my lower drawbars on my outer fence, then same course to the line of the land given to my daughter E. Weeden, and that a private passway shall be kept from the land of John between the land given to E. Weeden and my grand daughter S. A. L. Durham, until it extends to the land of Benjamin Moore.

It is my will that the line shall be so regulated as to give the same quantity of land to my son John and my grand daughter - The western lot in this division with the mansion house I give to my son John he however shall not in any way or under any pretext whatsoever have the right to dispose of said land during the life of his mother - The other lot of land I bequeath to my grand daughter Sarah Ann, L. Durham and to her children - should she however die without children said land to be equally divided among all my surviving children and should any be dead leaving issue such child or children to inherit their parents part, and should said grand child live to the age of twenty one years I give to her a girl named Luan said negro to be under the control of my wife during her life, and should my wife die before Sarah Ann arrives at the age of twenty one years my executor to manage said negro and increase, and should said Sarah Ann die childless said negro and her increase to return to my heirs

To my son John I give and bequeath my negro boy Jim, on condition that he pay to my executor two hundred and fifty dollars - It is my will that all the sawed lumber on hand at the time of my death, all the flat and common rails locusts posts &c made on that part of my land that may fall to my son John shall fall to my son John and my wife to improve the place as they may desire and shall be for their mutual advantage -

It is my will that after the death of my wife Eliza Weedon shall have the negro girl Mariah at her valuation should she be willing to take her. The balance of my negro's not mentioned in my will and all stock and other property not disposed of to be sold by my executor, and the proceeds equally divided among all my children my wife and Sarah A. L. Durham to get each an equal portion with the children - Sarah Ann to return to my children should she die childless - and to be kept by my wife as the other - It is my will that the present grave yard on the land devised to my grand child S. A. L. Durham shall be forever reserved and used for a burying ground one quarter or a half acre to be laid off for that purpose and all my descendants to have the privilege of burying there and shall have free access to the same -

To my son John I give one bed & furniture one bay horse, five head of cattle, ten head of sheep and twenty head of stock hogs.

I do hereby nominate and appoint my friend J. S. Hopkins & my son Simon Moore Executor of this my last Will & Testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 31st day of June 1844
