Robert Walker's will

I, Robert Walker of Boyle County Kentucky do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all other by me made.

First. I wish all my debts paid out of the means I have on hand at my death.

Second. I give and bequeath to my son John L. Walker the tract of land on which he now resides which is already conveyed to him by Deed, also release to him all claim I have to or hold on a tract of Land Deeded to me by Bridget Neir & Wm. S. William I. P. Mitchell Commission said J. L. Walker having paid for same out of his own money although the Deed is paid to me. I was purchased for his benefit alone, together with a Black man Will, now in his possession and all other advances by me made to him as his portion of my Estate, except what may be hereinafter named.

Third. I give and bequeath to my son Robert Walker, the tract of land purchased of Jones known as the Broyle tract of land. Also one Black man Charles, now in his possession together with all other advances made to him as his portion of my Estate, except what may be hereinafter named.

Fourth. I give and bequeath to my son Alexander B. Walker, the tract of land on which he now resides known as the Wholeberry tract, also one Black man Henry, now in his possession, together with other advances made to him as his portion of my Estate, except what may be hereinafter named.

Fifth. It is my will and desire after my death that the tract of land on which I now reside be ~~equally~~ ^{equally} divided as to value between my three sons George S. Walker, William S. Walker & Henry Walker, should George S. Walker be living, in case of his death, to be divided as above between William S. and Henry Walker, with the exception of a Strip of some thirty five acres on the South side of the road as it now runs said Strip of land, I wish sold, and the proceeds to be applied to the payment of my debts. Also to my son, William in addition one black man Abraham now in his possession with other advances which he has recd. And to my son Henry, one black man, Anthony now in his possession together with all other advances made to him, in full of their portion of my Estate except what is hereinafter named.

Sixth. It is my will and desire after the foregoing bequeaths are settled, that the residue of my personal Estate & Slaves be sold to the highest bidder, and the proceeds applied, first to the payment of my debts and the balance if any to be equally divided among all of my legal heirs, except the Children of P. C. Latimer having already to them, further largely above what I am able to furnish the balance of my Children. Also, I have a tract of land in the Knob of about two Hundred Acres, which I wish sold in the same manner, and the proceeds applied in the same manner of my personal Estate, first to the payment of my debts, the residue divided equally among all my heirs except P. C. Latimer's Children.

Seventh. In addition I wish my son William & Henry to retain in their hands the stock on the Farm, which they now have claims, to hold the same as their property for their own use & benefit. I also give to my son Henry, in addition for his services my Farm One Hundred dollars to be paid him by my Exrs.

Eighth. I hereby constitute and appoint my son John L. Walker, Robert Walker & Alexander B. Walker my Sole Exrs.
