

451 presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.
Matthew Cunningham (Sigs)
Stephen J. Miller (Sigs)

State of Kentucky.
County of Breckinridge.
I, J. P. Jolly, Clerk within and for County and State aforesaid do certify that the within instrument of writ-ting or will, was this day produced and acknowledged before me by Thomas Harren to be his act and will.
Witness my hand this the 3rd day of March 1881.

J. P. Jolly, Clerk.
By R. Hartman D.C.

State of Kentucky.
County of Breckinridge.
May 18th 1881.
The last will and Testament of Thomas Harren was this day duly proven to the satisfaction of Matthew Cunningham and Stephen J. Miller the two subscribing witnesses heretofore required by, and to the satisfaction of the Court. Ordered that the same be admitted to record.
Attest J. P. Jolly Clerk

December 14th 1880
I Benjamin P. Pool being in sound and proper mind and in feeble health believing that I have not long to live do make the following my last will, first that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my personal property I will to my eldest son Marcus P. Pool all property and money be-bestowed on him therefore, 3rd I will my farm and all the balance of my personal property after all my debts

452 are paid to my other five children viz: Rebecca Mary E. & Francis B. & Ann E. & I further will that they live on and hold said farm all together and provide for and take special care of my wife Sally Ann P. & during her natural life or widowhood, I further will that no interest in the farm be sold to any one except it be to one of the last five named children until the youngest child is 21 years old but that they use the farm for their support and comfort, further I will that the corral mare colt that I gave my son Thos P.
P. shall belong to him but shall be kept on the farm for the use and benefit of them all &c. and I appoint and request James Parsons Esq as executor to this my last will and testament. So witnesses whereof I here-unto subscribe my name Attest Benjamin P. Pool.
W. H. Henninger,
C. H. Clark.

State of Kentucky,
County of Breckinridge,
February Term 1881.
This paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Benjamin P. Pool di-ceased and was proven by the oath of W. H. Henninger one of the subscribing witnesses thereto as required by law and ordered to lay over for further proof.
Att. G. P. Jolly Clk.

Breckinridge County Court.
May 16 1881.

This day the same was again presented to Court and proven by the oath of C. H. Clark who swore that the same was signed and acknowledged by Ben P.
Pool to be his act and deed as required by law and that the witness signed the same in his presence,
Att. G. P. Jolly Clk