

Attest (W P Baker

B P Jolley

Kentucky, Breckinridge County, Court
September 15th September Term 1884

The foregoing instrument of writing was produced to court duly proven by the oath of B. P. Jolley one of the attesting witnesses thereto established as and for the last will and testament of William Busham and ordered to be recorded Whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly admitted to record

Attest Will Miller Clerk B. C. C.

Examined I Catharine E McGill being, in sound mind & of disposing memory declare & ordain this my last will & Testament hereby revoking all others

1st I give & bequeath to my beloved husband Thomas A McGill for all my property & estate whatever both real & personal in trust however for my children & heirs viz Mary McGill Margaret R Rhodes, Martha E. Thompson, Mary O Johnson Emily L Thompson Thomas A McGill Jr, Stephen A D McGill Catharine Malinda McGill Eliza P McGill John L McGill

2d I desire my said Trustee to continue to keep open the Tavern House ^{now} known as the Hambleton House so long as he finds it of advantage to himself & my said children the object of this being to afford at home for & keep together my unmarried children

3d I desire that my said Trustee in the event that any of my married daughters should find themselves at any time houseless shall furnish them a home under my roof

Given under my hand this 29th day of January 1884

C. E. McGill

Witnesses

G. L. Brown

C. J. Kutz

Kentucky, Breckinridge County, Court

January 19th January Term 1885

The foregoing instrument of writing was produced to court duly proven by the oaths of ^{C. J. Kutz} G. L. Brown & the attesting witnesses thereto established as and for the last will and testament of Catharine E McGill, ^{deed} and ordered to be recorded Whereupon the same and ^{this} certificate have been duly admitted to record

Attest Will Miller Clerk B. C. C.