

Examined. I, Francis Basham, a farmer, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all other wills by me at any time ~~now~~ heretofore made.

To my son Daniel W. Basham, Henry W. Basham, Joseph Basham, Richard B. Basham, I will and bequeath each of them One dollar. To my daughter Aulie Norton I will and bequeath one dollar. To the heirs of of my daughter Bessie Shaw deceased I will and bequeath one dollar. To the heirs of my son Jacob D. Basham deceased I will and bequeath one dollar. All the remainder of my property, which I now have or may hereafter acquire or die possessed of, my notes, accounts, cash personal property real estate or any other property not above mentioned, I will add bequeath to my son Francis M. Basham; I desire that my son Francis M. Basham shall provide for my wife Catherine Basham and shall keep and retain her in his own household as one of his family, and when he shall fail to perform the duties above mentioned, then I desire that this will shall lawfully be canceled and my property revert to the demands of my wife Catherine Basham. I desire that my son Francis M. Basham shall pay all my debts, and the funeral expenses of myself and wife, Catherine Basham. I hereby appoint Francis M. Basham to be executor of my estate and I request that he not be compelled to either give any bond nor furnish an inventory of my estate. In testimony of which I have this 24th day of February 1892 signed this will in the presence of witnesses.

Ben a Bart

J. W. Miller

A. C. Richardson

{ Witnesses

Francis ^{his} Basham _{mark}

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court.

Regular Term March 15 - 1893

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Francis Basham deceased was this day produced to Court and duly proven by the oath of J. W. Miller one of the attesting witnesses thereto, and established for the last will and testament of the said Francis Basham deceased, and as such was ordered to record whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded. At John E. Monahan Clerk P. C.