these presents that I Francis Hargy make this my last will and Testament First I wish that at my just debts shall be paid and buried and burial expenses paid. Secondly I want my two Sisters Lucretia and Martha my riding horse and wishes to be equally divided between them as a special legacy & as well as the last thing I want my <sup>little</sup> sister Eliza Hargy to have my saddle as a special legacy more than the other two. Thirdly I wish all the rest of my Estate consisting of money, Bonds, Notes and accounts should be equally divided between my sister Sister & Brother. Also I want my Sister Eliza & her daughter Eliza to have an equal part with the rest. Fourthly I want my Brother Thomas as sole guardian for Eliza and managed her part of the estate in the following manner. First I want her money to be loaned out at interest till she is Eighteen years old or till she gets married provided she marries before that time then I want her to have her money with interest then on also I wish her to be schooled and her tuition paid out of her part of the Estate Lastly I want a division to take place at least within two months if possible or as soon after as the nature of the case will admit of after my death and each one to take his part and manage it to his own liking except Eliza her I want managed in the above named manner. At Witness I have with me my wife
