all of my household and Kitchen furniture Beds and bedding and any & all the live Stock I may own at my death.

Item 6th I also give my daughter Martha Wolverton all the cash and Cash Notes I may own at my death.

Item 7th In making this my will. I do it for the purpose of providing a home for my daughter Martha Wolverton who is in poor health and to enable her to keep the house in repair. I have given her what little money or notes I may have the most of the latter can not be collected without considerable trouble. and also because she has been a source of help and comfort to me in my declining years.

Item 8th I desire that my daughter Martha Wolverton shall be my executor to carry into effect this my will and I further request and desire that the Court shall not require her to give bond.
