Whereas life is uncertain and death is certain, and being in full possession of my mental faculties I make this my last will and testament,

It is my will and desire that after my death that my effects personal and real, be disposed of as follows, viz: My executor to be hereafter designated to collect all notes and accounts that I hold or coming to me in my hands or in the hands of others and dispose of all my effects both personal and real, and distribute as follows, To Edward D. Burton, five dollars,

To Marcianus B. Burton, five dollars, The remainder to be equally divided between my daughter Frances R. Hall and my two sons Allen Burton, and James L. Burton.

Having implicit confidence in the honesty and integrity of James L.
Burton, I appoint him my executor
