

have no gate to said inclosure and which shall not cost to exceed fifty ($50⁰⁰) dollars I hereby appoint L. M. McGlothlan Executor of my estate. I desire that all my just debts shall be paid. In testimony hereof I have this 11th day of February 1892. signed this will in the presence of witnesses.

Melvina ^{her} McGlothlan ^{mark}

Andrew Crawford }
R. B. Richardson } Witnesses.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term Feby 14th 1892

The foregoing Instrument of writing was this day produced to Court and duly proven by the oaths of Andrew Crawford and R. B. Richardson the two attesting witnesses thereto and the same was established as and for the last will and testament of Melvina McGlothlan deceased and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Att John E. Monarch Clerk P. B. C.

Examined I George H. Carman of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made. And as to my worldly estate and all the property real personal or mixed of which I shall die seized or possessed of, or which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease. I devise bequeath and dispose of in the following manner to wit: My will is that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall by my executor hereinafter named, be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as shall by him be found convenient. I give devise + bequeath to my beloved Children Annie, Alfred A. Richard, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Nora Bertha, and my beloved Grand Children (Ida Charles and Clifton Drain) being the Children of my beloved daughter Margaret, of which I will that they shall share together their mother's individual part together) all my above named children or their heirs I will devise and bequeath to each of them five dollars. All the remainder of my estate personal and mixed of which I shall die seized and possessed of or which I shall die be entitled at my decease and of my real estate all of the land belonging to my home place on which I now reside, I give devise and bequeath to my beloved son John Alexander Barman when he shall comply with the following request viz: He is to pay all my just and honest debts and furnish a living and home in clothing and provision for my beloved wife and all my unmarried daughters (as long as they remain single) from the time of my death, of which they are all to use their efforts in helping to make their support.

And lastly I do nominate and appoint my son John Alexander Barman to be the executor of this my last will and testament with ^{power} bond of security. In witness whereof I George W. Barman have to this my last will and testament consisting of two sheets of paper authorized my name to be subscribed to which I make my mark and affixed my seal this 13th day of February 1891.

George W. Barman ^{his} ~~mark~~ ^{Seal}

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said George W. Barman as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

William H. Barman.

John W. Barman.

Kentucky Breckinridge County, Court.

Regular Term February 13th - 1892.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to Court and duly proven by the oath of William H. Barman one of the attesting witnesses thereto and the same was established as and for the last will and testament of George W. Barman deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Attest John E. Monarch Clerk P.C.