

I George Sinclair of Brokenside County knowing that it is the will of God to die & to make this my last Will and Testament as to wit. That It is my will and desire that my just debts & funeral expenses be paid out of my estate not hereinafter Wages and in order to and in doing so it is my will and desire that my daughter Eliza Sinclair or Sally or Virginia or Frances Sinclair shall have added to them all my Estate and be and be sole and full and good jointly severally and equally and lawfully afford so as to make them in proportion with my daughter Mary Brown that George Spent for which I have incurred the same amount and as for my son George Harbison or Michael Sinclair I bequeathed them portion of my Estate and my son John Sinclair have being to pay all my just debts and for the burial of my wife to support and take care of my beloved wife Sally Sinclair and to live as long as she shall live and to pay her personal expenses and my son John Sinclair shall be to have my farm I now own and all my personal property at the date of my death also it is my will that my three single daughters shall remain with them until so long as they remain single. My son John Sinclair is left my executor to collect all my debts pay all my debts and in my will that they shall be no one of my property as there will be a plenty to pay all my debts without and it is for the my will that if my son John Sinclair at any time can sell the farm I now live on he is to have the privilege to do so as it may much improve and I do not wish to bind him to keep it but it is to be and the will that none of the real estate and to sell any of the personal property on my farm at any time that he may choose that will not to sell the house and the furniture and if my son John Sinclair shall ever sell the house and in good faith and perform on his part he is to be the sole owner of all my property at the date of my death also if my son John Sinclair do not perform on his part at any time my beloved wife is to have the control of all my property so long as she lives and at her death the property is to be equally divided between between my children in proportion to what they have had before by their own will and deeds this is my last will and testament. Witness my hand & seal this 1 day of April 1848

Attest J. W. McCracken

John Sinclair

George Sinclair

Countess of Brokenside County &c

County Court August Term 1848

The within Writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George Sinclair do^r was produced in Court and duly proven by the oath of Stephen W. McCracken and John Sinclair submitting Affidavits to be the last Will and Testament of George Sinclair and thereupon admitted to Record

Attest Charles McCracken the 20th 1848

Brokenside County &c

Know all men by these presents that I William Lyon of the County and State of being admonished of my approaching dissolution by the infirmities of my body and possessing as I do the last and entire control of my intellectual faculties with all the soundness or soundness of mind that I ever enjoyed at any preceding period of my existence do in these presents proceed to make the following disposition of my property to my wife and amongst my children. To my wife Sarah Lyon I will and bequeath all my at my death personal and real estate here and to hold and manage in what ever manner she may see most conducive to the benefit of herself and children previous however that she shall sell or dispose of much of my personal property as may be necessary to pay my debts which I wish her to do out of such property as