Attest Jo. Allen Clerk Rockingham City Oct

In the name of God amen I Isaac McNamee being in feeble health but sound in mind and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and desiring it my duty to make such a disposition of my property among my family as I may see just and right and as I may wish them to enjoy it after my death do make and order in this my last Will and Testament do hereby looking looking all others here before made by me. 1st It is my will that all my just debts be paid 2nd I give and bequeath to my wife during her life all my land including the farm on which I now live and my Wagon and team consisting of 4 horses the grain and stock belonging to the farming Conducts these tools and kitchen furniture all the poultry and all the Cattle that she may think necessary for the support of herself and family also all the Hogs and other Stock that she may choose to keep also all the crop that may be growing on the farm at my death also such grain and provision as may be on hand at my death. All the above described property I leave and bequeath to my wife and during her life she shall have all that to her such property of my estate only as she would have been entitled to by law had I made no Will But should she not marry she is to keep and enjoy it during her life. 3rd It is my will that such of my property as shall be in not taken by my wife also such of the horses as is not taken herein to her to be sold on a credit of 12 months. Bond and approved Security to be required of the purchaser also all of the debts as are owing are to be collected as soon as convenient and the proceeds to be applied as hereafter directed. 4th I give to my son William McNamee during his life property to the amount of $100. I have given to my daughter Elizabeth a fee property worth $50. also my son William I have given $100. also to my son James I have given property worth $100 also to my daughter Catherine Nelson property to the amount of $50 of which they have received my son William McNamee died having and should a girl named Lucy my daughter Catherine has a daughter living with me named Rebecca these two children and both my grand children are unprotected I therefore bequeath to them and each of them an equal share of my estate with my children that is Lucy is to receive what her father should have been in my estate had he been lived Rebecca is to receive in amount what either of my children received. 5th The proceeds of property devised to be sold in the 3rd section of this Will is to be put at interest and to be divided among such of my children and the above named two grand children as has received nothing herebefore of my estate each and to be paid their share as they respectively arrive at age. 6th After my wife's death should she remain a Widow during her life It is my will that all the balance of my estate that she may own proposed of be sold and the proceeds divided among my above named children and two grand children so that each may have received their equal share of my estate. In making the division what I have given to William McNamee is to be imputed partly he part also what I have given to either of the other children is to be taken into consideration in making a division of my estate. Should my wife marry again and her name be altered in or provided in the General Section of this my will such part of my estate as is not allotted in her dower this my will shall be sold on 12 months credit and the proceeds of the sale to be divided in the same manner as above stated. Confiding fully in the integrity and correctness of my Affairs and I have made this by Constitution and appointed her my executrix of this my last will and testament during her lifetime heretofore. Repeating the Court not to require of her security as the amount of my debt and since and it is my wish that she advise with Dr. Allen, Dr. J. H. Brown & John Lucas concerning the management of the business of my estate, but should she manage again she is no longer to manage my estate as executrix and in that case the Court will appoint some other person to take up the estate in the manner required by the Will and give to each legatee what she is by the will entitled to receive.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 15th of April 1840
