

I James Slith of Breckinridge County State of Kentucky do Make this My last will and Testament being of Sound Mind.

I Give and bequeath to My wife Madeline Slith all My real estate and Personal property after paying My just debts to raise and Keep My children together during her life time and widowhood If She Marry again the same is My Will.

I Appoint My wife Mrs Madeline Slith Executor of this My last Will and Testament.

Given under My hand this 2^d day of July 1868

Witness
J. W. Hunt and
J. J. Henderson

N. J. Slith

State of Kentucky
Breckinridge County Court

December Term 1868

A Writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of James Slith dec'd (was this day produced to Court and sworn by the Oath of John W. Hunt and Peyton J. Henderson who swore that the said Slith signed and acknowledged the same in their presence and they signed the same in his presence and the presence of each other and that they believed him to be of Sound Mind and disposing Memory.

All of which is ordered to be recorded the same having Standed with stamp of the clerk of the Court.

G. V. Dally Clerk

I Elias Rhodes of Breckinridge County & State of Kentucky Knowing the Certainty of Death and the uncertainty of when that event shall happen I do Make this My Last will and Testament as follows 1st it is My will and desire that after the payment of all My just debts and funeral expenses out of My personal Estate that the residue of My estate be disposed of as follows to wit I Give and bequeath to My beloved Wife Margaret Rhodes the farm on which I now live together with all the Farming utensils horse and stock furniture & one half of all My Stock on the farm at the time of My Death and My Negro girl Milly to have the use and Enjoy the Benefit during her natural life.

2^d The farm on which I now live and Farming utensils I Give and bequeath to My Son Elias Rhodes Subject to the above Deeds to his Mother.