Kentucky Breckinridge County Court

Aug 15th Regular Term 1887.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to court and the part purporting to be the original Will of Jesse W. Kinschloe deceased together with the codicil thereto was duly proven by the oaths of Jas G. Howell Jr. A. Murray and Alfred Allen who stated on oath that they were well acquainted with the hand writing of Jesse W. Kinschloe dead and after examining the writing and the signatures thereto believed the same to be in the hand writing of said Jesse W. Kinschloe dead and the whole was established as and for the last Will and testament of Jesse W. Kinschloe dead and ordered to be recorded whereupon the same and this certificate hath been duly admitted to record in my office.

This is the last will and testament of me Hilary Henning of Breckinridge County Ky Farmer. I give, devise, and bequeath all my real and personal estate, whithersoever and wheresoever, unto my son Charles H. Henning, his heirs, Executors, Administrators, and assigns, for his and their own use and benefit but with this restriction, that if I should die before my wife, Elizabeth R. Henning, then and in that case my said wife shall hold possession of all my real and personal estate and that the benefits thereof so long as she may live, and on her death the said Charles H. Henning shall have title to whatever real and personal estate she may die seized and possessed of.

2nd

And with this further restriction that the said Charles H. Henning shall well and truly from this time forth take good care of us, ^{with} decency and pay off and discharge all my just debts as well as his after my decease, treating us kindly as a son should treat his parents.

3^d

And I appoint my said son Charles H. Henning, sole Executor of this my will, hereby revoking all other wills made by me at any time heretofore.

In Witness Whereof I the said Hilary Henning have hereunto set my hand, this 12th day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty six

Signed by the above named

Hilary Henning
