

Examined

On the 23^d day of May 1849 John Haddock of Bowling-green Buckenridge County State of Kentucky being sick of the sickness whereof he died on the next day at his dwelling house County and State above mentioned did make and declare his last will and testament nuncupative in these or or words of the like substance that is to say

First that I desire all my just debts paid out of my Estate
Secondly after my debts are paid I give and bequeath unto my wife Parmelia Haddock with the request that she give my ^{Children} liberal Education all of my Estate debts and account to do by and with as she may see proper until the youngest of our Children becomes of age, except a judgement in my favor in the state of Mississippi and that I want to be appropiated to my Childrens benefit equally and when the youngest child becomes of age I want all the balance of their portion of the Estate equally divided among them.

These words or to the like effect the said John Haddock declared in the presence of the subscribers with intention that the same should be his last will and testament whereof he desired them to bear testimony. Which we reduce to writing, this twenty fifth day of May in the year Eighteen Hundred and forty nine

Wm C. Adams
Benjamin C. Drury

Kentucky Buckenridge County Set

County Court Monday August 21st 1849

The within writing, purporting, to be the nuncupative will of John Haddock decd was produced in Court and fully proven by the Oaths of James C. Adams & Benjamin C. Drury subscribing, witnesses thereto who severally swore that they ^{were} with the said John Haddock in his last illness and that they were called upon by him to take notice that such was his will or words of like import whereupon the same is ordered by the Court to be Recorded as the nuncupative will of said decedent

Attest Gilbert L. Drury Secy

Examined

I Samuel H Bates of the County of Buckenridge and state of Kentucky do hereby make and publish the following as my last will and testament revoking all others heretofore made

Whereas each of my four Children has had an allotment of Land heretofore made to them and I now hold none except the small tract on which I live containing about 50 Acres. It is my will that my beloved wife Nancy Bates shall possess and enjoy the said Land and appurtenances being the home place during her life. Also that she have possession and enjoy all my personal Estate after the payment of my just debts during her life with the exceptions herein after made.

It is my will that my three sons ^{equally} Wm. S. Bates John S. Bates and Benjamin Bates have to be equally divided between them all my Tools & my Linn. It is my will that after the death of my wife my daughter Mary Bates shall have my home place being the same willed to my wife during her life as before provided to herself her heirs or forever And also all my personal property remaining after the death of my wife

It is my will and I hereby appoint my wife Nancy Bates my Executor of this my last will and testament with the provision