Attest So. Allen Clerk Buchanan County Ky 1st

In the name of God amen. I Isaac McBarwick being in poor health but sound in mind and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and thinking it my duty to make such a disposition of my property among my family as I may see just and right and as I may wish them to enjoy it after my death do make and order in this my last will and testament do hereby looking looking and others hereunto made by me. It is my will that all my just debts to be paid I give and bequeath to my wife during her life and my land including the farm on which I now live and my Slaves and team consisting of 4 horses the grazing tract belonging at the farm of Cutts Creek house hold and kitchen furniture all the poultry and all the cattle that she may think necessary for the support of herself and family also all the hogs and other stock that she may choose to keep also all the crop that may be growing on the farm at my death also such grain and provision as may be on hand at my death. All the above described property I leave and bequeath to my wife and during her widowhood and should she marry again from that date it is my will she shall have all that to her such property of my estate only as she would have been entitled to by law had I made no will but should she not marry she is to keep and enjoy it during her life. 2^d It is my will that such of my property stock &c as is not taken by my wife also such of the house as is not taken to her to be sold on a credit of 12 months. Bond and approved security to be signed of the purchaser also all of such estate as are owing me to be collected as soon as convenient and the proceeds be applied as hereafter directed. I give to my son William McBarwick during his life property to the amount of $150. I have given to my daughter Elizabeth a piece of property worth $60. also my son William I have given $100. also to my son James I have given property worth $100. also to my daughter Catherine I have given property to the amount of $50. all of which they have received. My son William McBarwick is now living and child a girl named Lucy my daughter Catherine has a daughter living with me named Rebecca these two children and both my grand children are unmarried I think to begeth them and each of them an equal share of my estate with my children that is Lucy is to receive what her father should have been in my estate had he been lived. Rebecca is to receive in amount what either of my children receive. 3^d The proceeds of property devised to be sold in the 2^d section of this will is to be put at interest and to be divided among such of my children and the above named two grand children as has received nothing herebefore of my estate each and to be paid their share as they respectively arrive at age. 4th After my wife's death should she marry a widow during her life. It is my will that all the balance of my estate that she may see proper of be sold and the proceeds divided among my above named children and two grand children so that each may have received their equal share of my estate. In making the division what I have given to William McBarwick is to be imputed partly his part also what I have given to either of the other children is to be taken into consideration in making a division of my estate. Should my wife marry again and her share be allotted in as provision in the third section of this my will such part of my estate as is not allotted in her share it is my will shall be sold on 12 months credit and the proceeds of the sale to be divided in the same manner as above stated.
