

I, John Miller of the County of Breckenridge and State of Kentucky, knowing the uncertainty of life and desiring to make a different disposition of my property, from what would be made by law should I die intestate, do hereby make this my last will and testament.

First: I desire that my executor hereinafter named shall out of my personal property pay all my debts and funeral expenses.

Second: after paying my debts and funeral expenses I give and bequeath to my beloved nieces, Mary Elizabeth Miller and Eula Miller daughters of my brother Wm Miller all the rest of my personal property of whatever kind and character including Choses in action, bank stock, bonds, notes, mortgages, and money, and to hold said property in their own sole, separate and exclusive right, and to use and control the same free from the control, or debts or liabilities of any husband they may now or hereafter have said property to be equally divided between them.

Third: To my said nieces, Mary Elizabeth Miller and Eula Miller daughters of my brother Wm Miller, I also give and bequeath to be used and enjoyed by them equally during their natural life, and in such manner as they may see fit, all my real estate and wherever situated, with the exceptions hereinafter named and after their death; the same to go to their bodily heirs, and if either of them should die without bodily <sup>heirs</sup>, her interest in said land is to go to the survivor during her natural life and after her death to her bodily heirs.

Fourth: the land excepted from the third section of this will is such land as I may own at my death that I may derive from the estate of my deceased brother James Miller, this land if any I desire to be divided between those entitled to receive it according to law, the said Mary Elizabeth Miller and Eula Miller however, take no part thereof, they having been provided for in the second and third sections.

2
Fifth: as my brother William Miller is familiar with all my business, and has full knowledge of my property, I hereby appoint him Executor of my estate and will, and as I have perfect confidence in his honesty and integrity I request the Court not to require security of him on his bond.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this November 29 1892.

Subscribed and acknowledged by John Miller in our presence, and subscribed by us as witnesses in his presence, this November 29 1892.

A. M. Kincheloe.

Morris Estridge.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court.

Regular Term Jan'y 15 1894.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to the Court, and proven by the oaths of A. M. Kincheloe and Morris Estridge the two attesting witnesses thereto, and established as and for the last will and testament of John Miller deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest John E. Monarch Clerk.

Examined

I, Gideon J. Jolly of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other will made by me.

First: I will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

Second: After the payment of my debts & such expenses as may be necessary in the settlement of my estate, I desire that the remainder of my estate be disposed of as the statute laws of my State provides.