

In the name of that loved I John Shormaker of Buchanan's County Kentucky being of sound mind and memory but weak in body and believing it is appointed unto man once to die do make and declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others heretofore made 1st I give unto my beloved wife Catherine Shormaker one hundred dollars in cash and thirty six dollars in notes for the express purpose of paying for the land which I intend buying and being in Perry County Indiana a State adjoining Adam Shormaker's tract also I give her the above tract of land and one cow and calf two sows and pigs one hen and lamb one feather bed and furniture as much furniture as she please take together with a pair of curtains and bedstead all the kitchen furniture and all the cupboard furniture a pair of fine dogs an iron pot rack and half dozen chairs a large chest a table a floor stool a looking glass a large table and such other books as she can read and all the species of household furniture as she may wish to take excepting two beds furniture and bedsteads also all the corn and meat and the place where I now live laid off for consumption. 2^d I will that the land where I now live be sold after my death together with all the farming valuable stock of horses balance of stock of every kind and may also that she have the one third of the purchase money after all just debts are paid funeral expenses paid &c. I will the remaining two thirds be equally divided between Adam Shormaker John Shormaker and Stephen Shormaker my three sons 3rd I do appoint my beloved wife Catherine Adam Shormaker and Stephen Shormaker my executors to this my last will and my will is that my wife be qualified without security In testimony whereof I have written my hand and affix my seal this 18th day of April 1818

In presence of
J. H. & M. M. M.
Charles B. B.

John Shormaker

Buchanans County Ky

Second Term County Court 1818.

The above and foregoing writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John Shormaker deceased was exhibited in Court by the executors & executor therein named and was duly sworn to by the executor Adam Shormaker and Stephen Shormaker (the executor declined acting) and was duly found to be act and deed of the above named John Shormaker by the oaths of James H. & M. M. M. & Charles B. B. notaries public and is therefore ordered to be recorded

Attest I Allen C. Buchanan's County Court

I Robert Hendrick of Buchanan's County and State of Kentucky being in my perfect senses do make this my last will and testament (witness) For the great love and affection I bear my wife Lucy Hendrick I do bequeath to her the one half of my real and personal estate during her widowhood and if she should marry only one third which she is to possess during her life after my just debts being paid and the balance I wish to be equally divided amongst my children named as follows Sarah Calver Nancy Adams Thomas Amelia and Martha I leave Calvin Hendrick son Robert Hendrick & my son and Lucy Hendrick my wife as Administrators as witness my hand this 1st day of August eighteen hundred and eighteen

Witness

Robert Hendrick

Leander Carmichael

Missy Clark

James Davis Seaton