I, John W. Galloway of sound mind and memory do hereby make this my last will and Testament —

1st I will and desire that my just debts and funeral expenses be paid if any —

2nd After paying said expenses I will and bequeath the remainder of my personal estate to my beloved wife Catherine Galloway I also will that my said wife have the use of the entire tract of land on which I now live as long as she remains my widow with the right to cultivate or plant the same for the support of herself and infant son but not to sell or convey.

3rd I will that my son Isaac D. at or before the age of 21 years be furnished with horse and saddle worth one hundred dollars out of the personally or rents if his mother thinks she is able to do so without materially injuring herself, if not I will that he shall have the amount in the final distribution of my estate —

4th I will that my three sons, to wit Wm S., George W. and Isaac D. Galloway at the death or marriage of my widow divide the tract of land where I now live equally between them giving each timber sufficient to keep up the land provided Isaac has had his horse & saddle if not giving him one hundred dollars the advantage in the division; if they disagree in the division I will that each of them pick a man and they three make the division according to quality and quantity giving William the right to his share to include the buildings where he now lives —

5th I will that my wife be and she is hereby appointed to execute this my will with out being required to give security for the same —

I, John H. Madox being sound in mind and body and knowing the uncertainty of human life, do make this my last will and testament revoking all others —

Item first I desire that my son James C. Madox shall take charge of all my property and pay my just debts, and that him and his mother shall live on the land and own it equally during her life —

Item second — I desire that after all my debts are paid that my property, both real and personal shall be held and owned by my wife, and my son James, equally and at the death of my wife, the personal property shall all belong to my son James and the land disposed of as hereafter mentioned. But should my son die, before his mother, then my wife is to have all my property, as long as she lives, and at her death it must be divided equally among my four children.

Item fourth — I will and bequeath to my children Willy Robinson, Edmona Stahl, Mary Steeds, Jm H. Madox and Laura Koppes the sum of five dollar each.

Item fifth — I desire at the death of my wife that my land shall be sold and one eighth of the debt. I will and bequeath to my son James, who has been a great help to me, in my old age. And the balance to be divided equally among my four children. That portion falling to my son James shall be held in trust for him by my son James until the said John Riggs shall become twenty four years old.

Item sixth — I desire that my sons James Madox and Rudwell St. Forts shall be my executors to carry into effect this my will and testament and should the said Forts die or refuse to act, then I desire that my son James shall select some other person to act with him — This 27 May 1871.
