J.P. Galloway Clerk.
By Hester Thomas D.C.

I, John H. Madox being sound in mind and body and knowing the uncertainty of human life, do make this my last will and testament revoking all others —

Item first I desire that my son James C. Madox shall take charge of all my property and pay my just debts, and that him and his mother shall live on the land and own it equally during her life —

Item second — I desire that after all my debts are paid that my property, both real and personal shall be held and owned by my wife, and my son James, equally and at the death of my wife, the personal property shall all belong to my son James and the land disposed of as hereafter mentioned. But should my son die, before his mother, then my wife is to have all my property, as long as she lives, and at her death it must be divided equally among my four children.

Item fourth — I will and bequeath to my children Willy Robinson, Edmona Stahl, Mary Steeds, Jm H. Madox and Laura Lapps the sum of five dollar each.

Item fifth — I desire at the death of my wife that my land shall be sold and one eighth of the debt. I will and bequeath to my son James, who has been a great help to me, in my old age. And the balance to be divided equally among my four children. That portion falling to my grandson John Rigby shall be held in trust for him by my son James until the said John Rigby shall become twenty one years old.

Item sixth — I desire that my sons James Madox and Rudwell St. Forts shall be my executors to carry into effect this my will and testament and should the said Fort die or refuse to act, then I desire that my son James shall select some other person to act with him — This 27 May 1871.
