

Examined

I G W Miller of the county of Breckinridge State of Kentucky do make this my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all former wills I may have made

After paying my just debts I give and devise to my beloved wife Nancy Miller all of my estate both real and personal of what nature or kind it may be during her natural life At the death of my said wife all of my estate aforesaid both real and personal of what nature or kind it may be I give and bequeath to my said wifes niece Charlotte Miller Leimer and her heirs and assigns forever I do hereby constitute and appoint James Crawford Administrator of this my last will and testament

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 9th day of February 1887

G W Miller

Signed and acknowledged by G W Miller in our presence
Andrew Crawford
Geo M Marshall

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court

March Term March 21st 1887

The foregoing instrument of writing was produced to court and duly proven by the oaths of Andrew Crawford and Geo M Marshall attesting witnesses thereto and established as and for the last will and testament of G W Miller deceased and ordered to record whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office
Cottley Will Miller Clerk B.C.C.

Examined

I John Britchlow of Breckinridge County Ky a farmer on the North fork of Rough Creek make this my last will

I give devise and bequeath my estate and property real and personal as follows 1st that my just debts and funeral expenses be paid 2<sup>d</sup> that my son Houston B Britchlow and my daughter Mary C Britchlow have my farm jointly 3<sup>d</sup> that my live stock grain tobacco and household property be sold or twelve months credit to pay my debts and I will to my ~~daughter~~ sister-in-law Martha Fraize two hundred dollars for pest services to be paid out of the money coming to me from my fathers estate when collected and if that amount is not coming from fathers estate the residue must be made to her from any other of my estate or property and I appoint as my executor ~~John~~ Spencer to carry out the provisions of this my last will & testament as witness my hand and seal this 22nd day of Feb 1887
John Britchlow
John Britchlow

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court

March Term March 31 1857

The foregoing instrument of writing was produced to court and duly proven by the oath of H. H. Commins one of the attesting witnesses thereto and established as and for the last will and testament of Jas D. Commins deceased and ordered to record whereupon the same and and this Certificate have been duly recorded in my office

Attest Will Miller Clerk B.C.

In the name of God Amen

Examined

I Edward F. Pile of Breckinridge County Ky being of sound mind and memory do constitute this my last will and testament, I give and bequeath to my wife Emily F. Pile all of my personal property my household and kitchen furniture and all of my notes and money I give and to my wife Emily F. Pile to collect and dispose of the money as she thinks best either invest in real estate or divide with my children equally but be sure to keep enough to do her her lifetime And as to my real estate my wife Emily F. Pile can and convey any of it if she thinks best and use the money to the best advantage except the Scott farm and that Eli Pile can have valuing it at four thousand dollars and if he does not take it then Eli Pile and Jesse D. Pile are to have it at that price But my wife is to contrall it as I have if she chooses while she lives Now she must make Eli Pile and Jesse D. Pile equal with the other children And I appoint my wife Emily F. Pile my Executrix without any security and not to take any inventory of my property but settle it and divide as she thinks best with the money and have as little expense attached to it as possible and at her death my property to be divided equally between my children Wm H. Pile Eli Pile Jesse D. Pile Sally Ann Brunner Eli Pile Jesse D. Pile In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 4th April 1857.

Witnesseth

George Leonard
Christopher L. Pile

Edward F. Pile (Seal)

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court

Regular Term May 16 1857.

The foregoing instrument of writing was produced to court and duly proven by the oath of H. H. Commins one of the attesting witnesses thereto and established as and for the last will and testament of Jas D. Commins deceased and ordered to record whereupon the same and this Certificate have been duly recorded in my office