

and it her death that they pass and come to the heirs of the said Edgar Estate
It is my Will and desire that my said Robert Garret have and live of my property remaining after the bequest to him and in default of him the value of a house and a house to him &c. It is my Will and desire that my children Thomas William and Leila have each one sixth part of my property remaining after taken out my wife's portion. It is my Will and desire that my Negroes be divided out early on the 1st day of January for 4 years - except my negro woman Leila and her child it is my wish that she remain with my wife Leila and that her yearly hire be valued by two disinterested persons one appointed by my wife Leila and the other by my executor here in after appointed & the proceeds of the hire be divided one third to my wife Leila and the residue among my children equally ~~and~~ and at the expiration of the term of hiring, as often said it is my Will and desire that said slaves be divided among my wife and children according to the several bequest to them to be set forth said divisions to be made by 3 disinterested men appointed by my Executor.

7th It is my Will and desire that all the residue of my personal property not herein before disposed of shall remain on my farm until the 1st of January and then be sold by my Executor on such terms as he may think best and advantageous and the proceeds be divided in like manner with the property bequeathed.

8th I nominate and appoint John W. Hinchelwood to be the Executor of this my last Will and Testament Witness my hand & seal this 25th day of July 1848.

Witness my hand & seal this 25th day of July 1848. Signed at the last Will and Testament of said Garret on the 25th day of July 1848 by us as Witnesses then in his presence

David X Garret

J. B. Worley
Witness
J. A. McCallister

The Words my twice inserted on the 1st page and were lost and the Words personal in the last page.

Shenandoah County, Virginia

County Court September Term 1848.

The Within Writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of David Garret was produced in Court and duly sworn by the oath of John B. Worley and Joseph A. McCallister two of the subscribing Witnesses thereto & ordered to be recorded.

Attestation McCallister J. B. Worley, Jr. County Court

In the Name of God Amen I Joseph A. McCallister of Shenandoah County and State of Kentucky being in a weak state of body but of perfect mind and recollection calling to mind that it is appointed for all men to die; hoping that after death that I shall receive mercy through the merits of Jesus Christ I commend my body to the earth to be decently interred according to the rites of the Holy Catholic Church at the discretion of my surviving friends. And as touching such of my worldly Estate as it has pleased God in his mercy to bless me with, after paying all of my just debts, I give and devise in manner and form following, to wit.
First I give and bequeath to my wife Rachel McCallister all and unto the residue of my personal and real estate to have the full and undivided benefit thereof during her Natural life and after her death. I then I give and bequeath all and the better of said personal and real Estate to my Son, Charles R. McMillan, Richard, Marion, John, Joseph, Mary (deceased) and Frances (deceased) McMillan. I then I give and bequeath all and the better of my Estate personal and real after the death of myself and my wife shall be sold to the best advantage by my Administrators hereafter named and the proceeds or profits of said Sale or Sales to be equally and justly divided amongst my said Children above named or their lawfull heirs then & And lastly I hereby appoint my wife Rebecca McMillan and my Son Thomas McMillan my Administrators and Executors of this my last and last Will and Testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 27th day of August in the year of our Lord 1836.

Signature Deceased acknowledged in the presence of

Joseph McMillan

William McHenry

Simon Black

Hutchinson Buckenridge County Va.

Respectfully Grant November Term 1838.

The foregoing writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Joseph McMillan was duly proved by the oath of Simon Black a Subscribing Witness thereto to William McHenry the other Witness thereto being made to be the last Will and Testament of said McMillan & then opened or read to be recorded.

Teste MR. James D.C.

In the Name of God Amen I John Woods of the County of Buchanan and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory but in feeble health and believing that a man should whilst living make such a disposition of his Estate by Will as in his judgement Will most conduce to the comfort and Well being of his family after his death, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament hereby Looking as others have before made by me Section 1st. It is my Will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid. Section 2nd. I have and bequeath to my Son Lewis A Woods and young boy named which he now claims Section 3rd. I give and bequeath to my Son Richard Woods and young boy named which he now claims Section 4th. Having full confidence in the integrity and prudence of my beloved wife Frances Woods and in her affection for my Children, I do here by leave and bequeath to her in Trust, during her lifetime all the remainder of my Estate both real and personal for purposes herein after mentioned. The property herein entrusted to my wife consists of all my land, horses, Cattle, hogs, sheep, farming utensils, house hold and kitchen furniture, in fact everything or species of property that I may own possess of (and not on loan in the then present Sections of this Will) she is not authorized by this Will to sell any of my land but the trust herein conferred to her is to enable her to keep my family together with the farm as usual raise and educate my children and give to each an equal opportunity I leave the children (to wit) Lewis A Woods, Richard, William, Martha, Stephen and Margaret and it is my desire and Will as my said Children, to particularly because of age or marry that my wife give to each out of my Estate a horse, saddle, bridle and collar and such farming utensils, house hold and kitchen furniture as she may think her self able to afford without inconvenience to herself or the balance of the family that may remain with her. When one of the Children becomes of age or married it is my desire that my wife receive her own directions as to the amount she give out of my Estate and the time of giving it and in allowing it to be charged