Gideon P. Polley, Clerk

As human life is uncertain, I make this my last will and testament as follows, to wit: Should I die before my wife, It is my wish that she shall have, use and enjoy, all our estate both real and personal, during her natural life, except such part as is herein hereafter specially devised.

I have heretofore given to my children property so without keeping any account of the amount given, but with a wish to give them as nearly equal as I conveniently could, And therefore what I have given to any of them, I desire them to have without accounting for the same. I give to my grandson J. A. Peyton, a strip of land, to wit: All the land down South of the Stephens Fork road and below Rocky Run, which I hereby devise to him, his heirs or assigns. I promised to Francis Peyton about 10 acres of land on Hardins Creek, at or near where he built a saw mill, which I wish him to have. All the rest and residue of my estate, which may remain after the death of my wife, I wish equally divided between my children, and the descendants of those that are dead, as follows, to wit: To my son Alfred Allen, one fourth part, To the children of my deceased daughter Anne McClarty, one fourth part. To my grandchild J. D. Allen, and his sister
