

July, 28-1892

Examid

In the holy name of God I Matilda E. Miller of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky being afflained in years, yet of sound mind, knowing the uncertainty of life do this day make this my last will and Testament - I desire when I am dead that my son Alfred Miller to collect what is owing to me and pay all of my just debts, and then make an equal divide between my own bodily heirs - Mary Sherricks children, Jacob Lyons children, and Alfred Miller, If James H. Payne comes in as an heir, I will him out, as I do not want him or his heirs ever to have another cent of my property, or any thing that is mine, if the law gives him One dollar, let him have it.

Matilda E. Miller.
Emma Seaton Witness.

My bed is for Silas. my large trunk for Mike - my dresser for Dickie & my small trunk for Dennis my gold spectacles for Alfred - my bed covers for Martha - and above all my dear grand children try to become Christians and prepare for death, life is uncertain and death is sure, all that is made must be destroyed, and all that is born must die.

Matilda E. Miller.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term Nov 21-1892.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to the Court and duly sworn by the oath of Emma Seaton the attesting witness thereto, and by the oath of Alfred Miller, who stated that both the body and signature of the instrument were in the handwriting of the testator, and was established as and for the last will and testament of Matilda E. Miller deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest John E. Monarch Clerk B. C. C.