

in right of their mother -

It is understood that in making said division, Peter Bent, Lemuel Bent and Mary J Bent are not, or is either of them to be charged with the value of the lands deeded and willed to them or their ancestor which they are to hold under said deed and will without accounting therefor, free from any claim on the same or its value on the part of the other heirs and devisees. - It is further understood that John Bent and Charles Bent and the other children are not to be charged with any advancements made to them or either of them except as stated in the will.

It is further understood that the will when recorded under this agreement is to have the same effect (except as above agreed) as if said will had been duly and regularly proved and recorded and no more and the consent of the parties hereto is not to prejudice any right they had if the will had been regularly proven except so far as is agreed herein.

The bond which Lemuel Bent holds on W^m Bent for one hundred dollars is hereby surrendered up. And the said Lemuel agrees to assist no claim against the estate on account of the same.

The ordinary costs of this suit to be paid out of the estate. - The lawyers to be paid by the parties employing them, as to the charge made in the will against Markbot Bent for money collected of the Boards toll. - Lastly that being so tested by the said Markbot Bent is left open for future adjustment and settlement - he is not precluded by this agreement from contesting said claim so far as the law and facts will warrant him.
