Known all men by these presents that I Richard B Hardaway of the county of Buchanan and state of Kentucky being in good health and sound mind do make and publish this my last will and Testament as follows viz

1- I give and bequeath my son Jesse the tract of land on which I reside and to my granddaughter Elizabeth Eyna Hardaway the balance of a tract of land deeded to me by Samuel Jordan Wolfe by deed dated the 15th day of May 1807 part of which has already been given by me and deeded to Griffin Hardaway and another portion has also been given and deeded to Thomas Hardaway both of which dees are of record in the Buchanan County Court Clerk's office I have also given to my son Milton Hardaway a tract of land conveyed to him by deed dated the 1st day of May 1809 and to my daughter Emily Saunders a tract of land conveyed by deed of record in the Hardin County Court Clerk's office This I intend as a full and complete division of my landed estate and desire that no one of them shall account to the rest for any difference in value of the land given to me or that given to others

2- Having given to Griffin Hardaway Dea George Boy Horden to Thomas Hardaway a negro boy Eli and to Anna Saunders a negro girl Lucy Northome it is my will and desire that my sons Milton and Jesse ^{death my} each of one negro of those left at my decease and they shall make them all equal so far as the first negro to each is concerned no one accounting to the others for want of value of the negro thus received if often they have all had one slave is enough negroes left to give them each a second it is my then will and desire that they all be valued the children shall then draw lots for choice of the negroes so valued and shall each take choice of one in his lot or turn with the value previously fixed the excess of value to be equalized by the heir receiving the negro of greater value paying to the other heirs that excess out of his interest in the remainder of my estate and if that interest is not sufficient to make up the full amount nothing further shall be required after thus giving to all my negroes each and there is any left still then it is my desire that my granddaughter Elizabeth Eyna shall have the next choice and the balance of my to be sold to the highest bidder one person being allowed to bid but my heirs the proceeds to be divided with my personal estate if however at my death there are not negroes enough to give to each a second one then after Milton and Jesse shall have taken one each the remainder shall be sold and divided as above directed for the remainder after giving them two each

3- It is my will and desire that my granddaughter Elizabeth Eyna of my personal estate shall have one good horse bridle & saddle a good bed bedstead bedding and the Bal of my personal estate shall be divided equally among the Bal of my heirs

4- It is my will and desire that at my death my negro man Eliph shall be of July 1856. The within writing was again produced in Court and fully proved by the Oath of Martin McElathlin another subscribing Witness thereto and was duly sworn to by James C. Laycomb one of the Executors therein named and is thereupon Ordered to be Recorded
