

his proportion of the balance of the land with his brother & sister but only had his proportion of the personal property thus being left with no assets all other with sold on his writing down on my hand and seal the 15th day of January 1819

Paul

Phosphorus & Bismuth

James Henings

Michael Morris

Kentucky Breakers - County Court

At a County Court held for the County aforesaid at the Courthouse in Harpersburg on Monday the 15th day of February 1819 the within writings purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Humphries Bland sen^r dec^d was proved by the oath of James Jennings a witness thereto & laid over for further proof. And at another term of the same Court held for the County aforesaid the 15th day of March 1819 the within writing was fully proved by the oath of Abraham Moorhead another witness thereto and ordered to be recorded att. In Attest att. Buchanan's County Court

I Robert Townsend Wrote of the town of Alexandria in the State of Virginia formerly of Virginia County in Maryland being of sound perfect and disposing mind and memory and reflecting upon the uncertainty of health and life and the certainty of death and that it is the duty of every man to make such a disposition of his estate and temporal concerns while he retains his senses perfect and unimpaired by sickness or infirmities as he should choose to take place after his death as without such dispositions it might so happen that the estate of which I am seized and possessed might go to what use and to what hands which I could not foresee and which I could not have given anything to a supply the said person the said person the said person are among others the being in human shape which I desire and look upon as respect to society and as such ought to be given from among the honest part of mankind. Therefore in the name of the great God of the and all other gods the maker & creator of all things before whom at a future day I expect to stand and to whom I hereafter I expect to answer and to whom I attribute power wisdom and justice I do make and declare this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following that is to say I do hereby order and direct that all my just debts and funeral charges be in the first place fully satisfied and paid and for that end and purpose if it shall be found necessary I do authorize and empower my executors hereafter named or each of them as may suit to sell so much of my real estate as may be necessary for that purpose excepting from such sale the dwelling house in the town of Alexandria with the several pieces of ground about adjoining purchased at different times and extending as far as the line of Christiana Slinson on the South and Water Street and as the West and French Street to the lot of Robert Donaldson unless it be necessary to include them to make complete payment of my debts in that case these are to be sold as aforesaid I give and devise unto my dear son Robert Towne the son of my friend John Charles Towne and to his heirs and assigns forever two thousand acres of land in the State of Kentucky to be laid off and allotted by my executors hereinafter named or each as may suit and the survivors or survivor of such acting executors with the assistance of my friend Charles Towne from one of these two tracts of land purchased by one of last

Philip Barber in the said state in such manner as to include a due portion of goods land and commissions of that tract from which the said two thousand acres shall be so allotted then I give and devise unto Zachariah Monroester the apprentice youth now living with me one hundred pounds sterling as an earnest of my friendship and good wishes for him then I give and devise unto John Monroester and James Hemell More whom I have appointed two of my executors the sum of four hundred pounds sterling each in consideration of the trouble they will have in discharging the several duties chiefly laid on them which seems are to be paid and allow each each of them upon the final settlement of the administration of my estate then I give and devise unto my cousin Richard Harrison my late partner in trade all the rest and residue of my estate both real and personal that is to say all my personal estate to him his executors and administrators from and all the following tract of land with all and everything to the said lands or any of them belonging and appertaining ^{to the} that tract or parcel of land of which I am seignior at Maryland point called ^{near} ~~Land~~ ³² that tract of land called Leanan that tract of land called Smiths purchase that tract of land called the Liamps all lying and being in Charles County in the State of Maryland also the remainder of these two tracts of land purchased by me of late Philip Barber in the State of Kentucky after allotting unto my god son John Simms the two thousand acres lawfully devised to him and his heirs the said remainder being supposed to amount to ninety two thousand four hundred acres be the said more or less also these twelve tracts of land purchased by me late Philip Barber as agent of late Peter Bryan Beaman lying in the County of Ohio in the State of Virginia containing four thousand eight hundred and twenty acres and all these lots of ground and pieces and parcels of lots lying in the different towns herein after mentioned to wit that lot of ground with every thing thereunto belonging lying in the town of Conshohocken in the State of Maryland also my equal undivided moiety or half part of all these several lots of ground and pieces and parcels of lots of which I am seised jointly as a tenant in common with him the said Richard Harrison and all the houses building and improvements and every thing to the same in any way appertaining and belonging to wit that piece of ground lying at the intersection of Prince and Water streets on the South of Prince and West of Water upon which one dwelling house and store stand and three several pieces of ground immediately joining the same upon Prince and Water streets conveyed unto us by Robert Moten and Robert Mease and others of that piece of ground devised unto us by the Mayor and Commonalty of the Town of Alexandria upon which one stone maw house stands and from which one wharf is extended together with one said wharf and mawhouse also of that piece of ground purchased by us of Richard Watts Ashton which was conveyed to us by George Chapman also of that lot of ground in the Town of Colchester sold and conveyed unto us by the said of John Mills also three several lots of ground and pieces and parcels of lots of which I am wholly seised in my own right to wit that lot of ground in the Town of Baltimore and granted unto me by the Honorable David of St Thomas Ingham also that piece of ground lying upon the West side of Water street in the Town of Alexandria lately purchased by me of Samuel Johnson also three ^{two} pieces of ground purchased by me of George Hunter deriving its center of Thomas Plummering as used lying to the Eastward of Union Street one of these pieces of ground being a few simple estate the other leasehold and a part of the ground devised to the said his proportion of the balance of the land with his brother & sister but only had proportion of the personal property this being last will do revoke all other either will or in writing here under my hand and seal the 15th day of January 1819

Test

Thompson ^{for} Bondel

James Jennings

Abraham Moorman

Kentucky Buchanan County Court

At a County Court held for the County aforesaid at the Court house in Harrodsburg on Monday the 15th day of February 1819 the within writings purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Thompson Bondel sen^r doct was proved by the oath of James Jennings a witness thereto & laid on file for further proof. And at another term of the same Court held for the County aforesaid the 15th day of March 1819 the within writing was fully proved by the oath of Abraham Moorman another witness thereto and ordered to be recorded att. Is Allen clk. Buchanan County Court

I Robert Townsend Hove of the town of Alexandria in the State of Virginia formerly of Clarke County in Maryland being of sound perfect and disposing mind and memory and reflecting upon the uncertainty of death and life and the certainty of death and that it is the duty of every man to make such a disposition of his estate and temporal concerns while he retains his senses perfect and unimpaired by sickness or infirmities as he would choose to take place after his death as without such dispositions it might so happen that the estate of which I am seized and possessed might go to what in law is called an heir which lawful heir might be a person whom I in my lifetime disliked and would as soon have given anything to a puppy than the said player the law can the heir the job are among others the being in human shape whom I detest and look upon as a pest to society and as such ought to be driven from among the honest part of mankind. Therefore in the name of the great God of this and all other worlds the maker & creator of all things before whom at a future day I expect to stand and to whom alone hereafter I expect to answer and to whom alone I attribute power wisdom and justice I do make and ordain this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following that is to say. Infirmities It is my will and desire and I do hereby order and direct that all my just debts and funeral charges be in the first place fully satisfied and paid and for that end and purpose if it shall be found necessary I do authorize and empower my executors hereafter named or such of them as may act to sell so much of my real estate as may be necessary for that purpose excepting from such sale the dwelling house in the town of Alexandria with the small pieces of ground thereto adjoining purchased at different times and extending as far as the line of Christiana Shinnover on the South and Water Street and on the West and joined Street to the lot of Robert Donaldson unless it be necessary to include these to make complete payment of my debts in that case these are to be sold as aforesaid. Then I give and devise unto my son John Hove the son of my friend Col^l Charles Hove and to his heirs and assigns forever two thousand acres of land in the State of Kentucky to be laid off and allotted by my executors hereinafter named or such as may act and the survivors or survivor of such acting executors with the assistance of my friend Charles Hove from one of three two tracts of land purchased by me of Col^l