

State of Kentucky,

Breckinridge County Court. Nov Term, Nov 16th 1874.

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of William Wiseheart deceased, was this day produced in open court, and proven according to law, by the oath of A. W. Keorman, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and adjudged by the Court to be the true last will and testament of said William Wiseheart deceased, and ordered to record.

Attest:

W. P. Jolly Clerk.

By Bion Jolly D.C.

I, Phoebe Wiseheart, wife of William Wiseheart deceased, accept the conditions of his will, giving me one third of all his personal and real estate after all debts is paid, accept and will abide by the same, this November 14th 1874.

Wt. Wm. E. Wiseheart.

Phoebe ^{her} Wiseheart
mark

I, Ashwell Jordan of the County of Breckinridge, State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and ordinary health, but being old & knowing I can not live long, and wishing to prevent litigation among my heirs, and to do what I believe to be justice among them, do make, this, my last will & testament, hereby revoking all others ever made by me: First, I consider all my children to have been equally advanced, and in the division of my estate no one of them is to be charged for advancement. I have heretofore given to Selas Jordan my daughter Permolia & now C. Simmons and Caroline now Bandy some slaves. It is now my wish that they should not be charged with them as advancements, as the slaves have since been emancipated, and were of but little value to them. I hold two notes on Marvel Jordan, one for two hundred dollars and one for ninety dollars. The ninety dollar note I give to him, and it is not to be charged to him as an advancement. The $200 note is to be regarded as a debt due the estate. I also hold a note on Aaron Simmons for $400, which is also to be regarded as a debt due the estate & not an advancement. Joel Jordan is indebted to me in the sum of three hundred dollars, borrowed money, which is also not to be regarded as an advancement, but as a debt due the estate. I have given to Sally Airt fifty dollars, which is not to be charged to her in the distribution of my estate. As to the tract of land on which I now live, being all of the tract lying near Webster in

Buckenridge County, conveyed to me by Elias Jordan & wife, except that part I have conveyed to Marvel Jordan. Green Jordan has by my consent purchased the interest of Elias Jordan, Marvel Jordan & Sally Ait, and has paid them for the same. I now devise to said Green Jordan all the interests which Elias Jordan, Marvel Jordan & Sally Ait would have had, as my heirs, together with said Green's own interests therein, to have and to hold to him & his heirs. He devise to said Green is of an undivided five ninths of said tract of land unsold as aforesaid. The residue of said tract of land being five ninths thereof. I authorize & request my executors hereinafter named, to sell at either private or public sale as they may deem just. The sale to be made on a credit of 1 & two years, bearing interest from date, and a lien retained on the land for the payment of the purchase money. The Executors are authorized to convey said land to the purchaser. My Exors are also authorized & requested to sell all my personal estate, and collect all money due me, and out of the fund
 arising from the sale of my land, personal property, & money on hand & chases in action I devise to Marvel Jordan (my son) one ninth to my daughter Betsey Blay-comb, wife of Nelson Blaycomb, one ninth to her, sole, separate & exclusive use from from the debts or control of her husband. To my son, Joel Jordan, one ninth.
 To Timothy Jordan & Wm. Jordan, sons of my son William Jordan, I devise one ninth to be equally divided between them. I make this devise to them exclusively, and not to the other children of William, for the purpose of educating them & raising them up, the other children having received their education. To Permelia Simmons, one ninth to her sole, separate & exclusive use, free from the control of debts of her husband. To Elias, my son, one ninth. To my son Green 1/2 part of all my estate, except the proceeds of the sale of the land, and as I have devised his interest in the land to him, he is to have no part of proceeds of sale of land. To Sally Ait one ninth part for her sole, separate & exclusive use, free from the control or debts of her husband.
 The Elias Jordan, Marvel Jordan & Sally Ait have sold to Green Jordan, their interest in the tract of land above described, and received pay therefor. They are not to have any part of the proceeds of the sale of this land devised to be made by this will; but one ninth of the residue only of said estate, and the proceeds of sale land to be distributed as above directed among the other heirs and devise above named. I hereby appoint my son, Green Jordan, Exor of this, my last will & testament.
 In Testimony Whereof I have subscribed my name &

seal, this 24th March 1870.

Witness.

John W. Nicholoe.

Ben. A. Wathen

Samuel A. Bassett.

his
Sashuell & Jordan
mark

State of Kentucky.

Breckinridge County Court, for Term, November 16th 1870.

A writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Sashuell Jordan deceased, was this day produced in open Court, and proven according to law by the oaths of John W. Nicholoe and Samuel A. Bassett, subscribing witnesses thereto, and adjudged by the Court to be the true last will and testament of said Sashuell Jordan deceased, and ordered to record.

Attest:

By P. Jolly Clerk

By P. Jolly D.C.

I, Edwin Foote of Breckinridge County and State of Kentucky, do order, ordain and establish, this my last will and testament, revoking all others heretofore made.

1st I direct my daughter, Fannie Anderson, now residing in Kansas, shall have laid off to her two hundred & fifty acres of land, 250 acres lying on the lower end of the tract upon which I now reside, including the hill tract adjoining John Rose and Abel Messador.

2^d I direct my grandson Gerard Foote shall have two hundred and and fifty acres land, 250 acres of land including the house I now live in, & including the house hold furniture; the same I intended for my son, Gerard Foote, had he have lived.

3^d I direct the residue of my tract shall be divided between my two sons, Rudwell A. Foote and Virginus Foote equally, giving to Rudwell A. Foote that portion adjoining the land given to Gerard Foote.

4th I direct that Rudwell A. Foote shall have the stock and farming implements on the farm, with the exception of my old mare Sally, which I give to Gerard Foote.

5th I direct that Rudwell A. Foote shall not be held responsible for the proceeds of my farm since his marriage as our contract was, he should have the proceeds of my farm after paying all expenses and supporting me.

6th I direct my Executor, Rudwell A. Foote shall carry this my will and testament, into effect, done this sixth day of September eighteen hundred and