I William McCrae having been thinking for some time of making a little alteration in my last Will and testament on the same sheet dated August 1st 1868 being in good health and in sound mind and capacity do publish before these witnesses this day The alteration from my last Will of 1868 is that instead of one third of my property going to Bible Society I rather desire it to go thus

One third to go to Foreign Missions }
 One third to go to Home Missions } Presbyterian Church
 One third to go to Freedmen's Society } Old school

My beloved wife to have full use of all my property while she lives and if there is any remainder I wish it to go to Missions And instead of Session of Presbyterian Church settling my business I would desire such men as Dr. H. O. Morton W. Allen Michael Hamman and Mrs. Reidel to dispose of all my remaining property pay all my debts and all their inns and other expenses and the remainder to Missions as before mentioned

In Witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal down below this title that was on this paper before

This last Will and Testament in connection with with those on other side of paper was signed and sealed and witnessed at Cloverport
