

State of Kentucky
Breckinridge County Court MS Sept
Sept. Term, Sept. 15-1879.

A writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Joseph H. Ritchie decd. was this day produced in open Court and proved according to law by the oath of H. J. Ritchie a subscribing witness thereto, and adjudged by the Court to be the true last Will and Testament of said Joseph H. Ritchie decd. and as such ordered to be recorded.

Attest: Edw. P. Kelly Clerk.
By Horace Allen D.C.

I, Laura L. Ritchie widow of Joseph Ritchie decd do by these presents renounce the provisions of the Will of my said husband so far as the same affects my interest & relinquish all claims to any devise or devise^{ment} to me — Said Will is dated the 14th of August 1879 & was probated this day — September 15th, 1879.
Attest: John Casey, Laura L. Ritchie
Attest: Cyra Stackhouse.

Oral.

Know all men by these presents, that I, William S. Hall of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and in view of pending death, make this my last will and testament in consideration of injuries and attention during my last illness and the love and affections I have for my brother and brother in law Chastien Hall and Ambrose Bruner. It is my will after paying my funeral expenses that the said Hall & Bruner have all of my estate both real and personal of every kind and all of my interest therein — to have and to hold the same to them and their heirs and assigns forever.

Witness my hand this 9th day of May 1878.
Attest: William S. Hall

W. K. Barnes.

P. A. Ryan.

State of Kentucky
Breckinridge County Court

Sept. Term, Sept. 15-1879

This day the foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Wm S. Hall was produced in open Court and proved according to law by the oath of W. K. Barnes a subscribing witness been and adjudged by the Court to be the true last will and testament of William S. Hall decd and ordered to be recorded.

Attest: Fred P. DeW. Clerk.
By Horace Allen D.C.

The same was legally proven by the oath of
A. B. Lyons, one of the subscribing witnesses on the 17th Nov. 1879.

W. L. Jolly Clerk;

Knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, and being of sound mind and disposing memory, and being desirous of making disposition of all my property, I make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others.

I do will and bequeath to my sister Sarah Lyddan the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, to be paid to her by my executor herein after named, but if the first available means that may come to his hands, after my death, and in case that my said sister, Sarah, should die before I do, or before the payment of said devise, then the same shall go to my brother Michael Lyddan for life, and at his death to be equally divided among such of his children as may then be living, and if any of said children should have married and died leaving issue then such issue, is to have the share or interest which their father or mother would have been entitled to if living.

I do will and bequeath to my sister Nancy Lyddan the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, to be paid in the same manner, and in case of her death before the payment thereof, to pass in the same manner and to the