

A will of real and personal estate.

I William Wiseheart of Buckenridge, County and State of Kentucky, do hereby make my last will and Testament, in manner and form following; that is to say: 1st I desire that all the prishable part of my estate, be immediately sold after my decease, and out of moneys arising therefrom, and other sources, pay and satisfy all my just debts and funeral expenses.

2^d After the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses, I give my wife, Phebe Wiseheart, one third part of my estate, both real and personal, for and during her natural life time, and after her decease, I give the same to my children hereinafter mentioned, equally to be divided among them, and to be enjoyed by them forever.

3^d I give to my daughter, Minerva Jane Wiseheart, a well furnished bed and choice of bed steade, and choice of bureau, her saddle & bridle, her rocking chair and choice of stand tables, also a house and lot situated in the town of Big Spring, known as the W^m Morris property, now occupied by Gabriel Druwall and the shop on the premises, occupied at present by Lewis Druwall or five hundred dollars in cash, she making choice of the five hundred dollars; my administrator is to sell said property to raise said amount, and if said property does not bring the amount, the deficiency is to be made up from other sources in the administrator's hands.

4th All the rest of my estate, both real and personal, of what nature or kind soever it may be not herein before particular disposed of, I desire may be equally divided among my seven children, Viz: Margaret Madeline Gates, her portion to be given directly to her, Mary E. Druwall, Amanda Mc Kenders, Minerva J. Wiseheart, Sarah M. Drury, Susan E. Hardaway and William E. Wiseheart, which I give to them, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever. And lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my friends, Lewis Druwall & Mrs J. Drury, Executors of this, my last will and Testament, (without bond or security, they to exercise their best judgement in regard to time of disposition of the property placed in their hands) hereby revoking all other or former wills or Testaments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this 27th of Novr, 1871.

Signed, sealed and acknowledged } W^m Wiseheart (seal)
as and for the last will and Testament of the above named
William Wiseheart, in the presence of: A. K. Morris
A. V. Moorman

State of Kentucky,

Breckenridge County Court. Nov Term, Nov 16th 1874.

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of William Wiseheart deceased, was this day produced in open court, and proven according to law, by the oath of A. W. Keorman, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and adjudged by the Court to be the true last will and testament of said William Wiseheart deceased, and ordered to record.

Attest:

W. P. Jolly Clerk.

By Bion Jolly D.C.

I, Phoebe Wiseheart, wife of William Wiseheart deceased, accept the conditions of his will, giving me one third of all his personal and real estate after all debts is paid, accept and will abide by the same, this November 14th 1874.

Wt. Wm. E. Wiseheart.

Phoebe ^{her} Wiseheart
mark

I, Ashwell Jordan of the County of Breckenridge, State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and ordinary health, but being old & knowing I can not live long, and wishing to prevent litigation among my heirs, and to do what I believe to be justice among them, do make, this, my last will & testament, hereby revoking all others ever made by me: First, I consider all my children to have been equally advanced, and in the division of my estate no one of them is to be charged for advancement. I have heretofore given to Selas Jordan my daughter Permolia & now C. Simmons and Caroline now Bandy some slaves. It is now my wish that they should not be charged with them as advancements, as the slaves have since been emancipated, and were of but little value to them. I hold two notes on Marvel Jordan, one for two hundred dollars and one for ninety dollars. The ninety dollar note I give to him, and it is not to be charged to him as an advancement. The $200 note is to be regarded as a debt due the estate. I also hold a note on Aaron Simmons for $400, which is also to be regarded as a debt due the estate & not an advancement. Joel Jordan is indebted to me in the sum of three hundred dollars, borrowed money, which is also not to be regarded as an advancement, but as a debt due the estate. I have given to Sally Airt fifty dollars, which is not to be charged to her in the distribution of my estate. As to the tract of land on which I now live, being all of the tract lying near Webster in