WILL

I, Alexander Shellman residing near Union Star, in the County of Breckinridge and the state of Kentucky, Farmer, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

And as to my worldly estate, and all the property, real, personal, or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, I devise bequeath and dispose thereof in the manner following, to wit:

My will is that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall by my executor hereinafter named be paid out of my estate, as soon after my decease as shall by her be found convenient.

I give and devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Susan Ellen all of my property, real, personal and mixed of every kind and character to have her life time or so long as she may remain my widow, Should she marry then she is to have as much of my estate as the Statutes provide for, and residue of my estate to be divided equally between my children, but if she remains my widow so long as she live then she shall have all my property as aforesaid mentioned and after her death all my property shall be divided equally among my children.

It is my desire that my wife shall so conduct my estate in a manner that it will not be depreciated in value. There is several articles in my possession that was bought and paid for by my daughter Malisa Bell, and are her property, and they are not to be included in this will. And lastly, I nominate and appoint my wife to be my Execut~~or~~^{or} and I direct that she shall not give any bond or be required to make an inventory of my estate.

Witness my signature, this February 24th, 1902.

By J.K. Duke, D.C.

Know all men by these presents: That I, John Henry Skillman, of the County of Breckinridge, State of Kentucky, being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills that may have heretofore been made by me.

Item 1.

I direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my ~~estate~~ estate as soon as practicable after the time of my decease.

Item 2.

All the property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind nature and description wheresoever the same may be situated, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my decease, I give, bequeath and devise to my beloved wife, Mary Elisabeth Skillman, to have and to hold to her use and benefit so long as she may live.

Item 3.

At the death of my beloved wife, Mary Elisabeth Skillman, it is my will, that such of my property, real, personal and mixed of every kind ~~and~~ and description, as may remain after the life ~~term~~ of my said wife, be equally divided among my seven children whose names are as follows to wit: Mary E. Pumphry, Emma Cooper, W.A. Skillman, Frank Skillman Allen B. Skillman, John H. Skillman Jr., and Daisy D. Hunter.

Item 4.

It is understood and so directed, that should either or any of my said seven children depart this life before my decease, leaving a child or children, then, in that event such child or children is to take and have the share of such parent, as is made and provided in the third item of this will.

Item 5.

I do hereby make, nominate and appoint my wife Mary Elisabeth Skillman and my eldest son, William A Skillman joint executors of this my last will and testament; it being understood however, that in the event either of my said executors should refuse or fail to qualify as such, then the other so qualifying as the law provides shall have full power to execute and carry out the intentions of this will the same as if both had acted jointly; and I further request that no bond be required of my said executors as such. In witness whereof, I,
