- Examined
- 1 The name of God, Amen. I Laura Henty, being of sound mind do make this my last will and testament to wit: I desire and desire that all debts which I may owe at my death be first paid out of any money I may have or my funds at my death and if there be no money then out of my personal property.
 - 2 I devise and bequeath unto my children James C. Henty, Mary L. Henty, Mary C. Henty, Ella M. Henty, and Morris B. Henty, all the real estate of which I am seized at the time of my death to be equally divided among them according to quantity quality and value.
 - 3 It is my desire and I direct and the same shall be a charge upon my personal estate, that there be paid unto my daughter Morris B. or to her guardian for her, the sum of three hundred dollars per year to be used only for the purpose of the education of my said daughter but the same shall cease and be no longer paid if Morris ceases to attend school or leave government and in no event not to be paid after she shall have reached the age of nineteen years.
 - 4 I further desire and direct and same shall be a charge upon my personal estate, that there shall be paid unto my daughter Ella M. and Morris B. or unto their guardian the sum of One hundred and fifty dollars per year, each, for the purpose of enabling them to provide for themselves a home but such payment shall cease upon their marriage, as to the one marrying and in no event shall the payment be made after they arrive at the age of twenty one year and upon each arriving at such age said payment shall cease as to her --

5 My other children being over twenty one year of age and all except Morris having been educated by me I have decided it right to make the allowance to Ella & Morris provided in clauses 3 & 4 and make the same a charge upon my personal estate and to forego any provision is made of my personally or of the proceeds I direct that such provision be made as that the provision of clauses 3 & 4 be strictly carried out --

6 After the provision of the aforesaid allowance for Ella and Morris are made as directed by the preceding clauses I direct and will that my personal estate be equally divided to and among my five children.

7 My executors herein after named, are with right to sell all of my personalty either at public or private sale, using their judgment as to when and how it shall be sold.

8 I appoint my sons James C. Henty and Henry L. Henty, the executors of this will -- and in the event of the death or failure to qualify or both of either, the other may act alone and desire that no bond shall be required of either of them.

Witness my signature this the 14th day of September 1895.

Laura Henty
