

I, August Dutschke, near Lodiburg of Breckinridge County, and state of Kentucky, make this my last will. I give devise and bequeath my estate and property real and personal to my wife, Polly Dutschke at my death during her natural life.

At her death should she survive me I want my property both real and personal to be equally divided between all my children.

I appeal to my daughter Ida Knottingham to help and assist her mother in the way of advise and kindness in conducting her business.

Be it understood that I make this will in case I should die before my wife, otherwise void and not to take effect until my death.

In witness whereof I have signed and sealed and published and declared this instrument my will. This the 6th day of July 1904, at Frymire, Ky.

August Dutschke. (seal)

At same time and place we as

This is intended as a Codicil to the above will. I devise my beloved wife Polly Dutschke to act as executrix without bond, and further desire my daughter Ida Knottingham to assist her mother in conducting and carrying on the business of the estate. This is intended to take effect should I die before my wife does.
