I, Julius B. Dutschke, being of sound mind, but weak in body, make this my last will and testament.

It is my wish and will that all my just debts be paid first. Should I die, also is my will and desire that my wife during her natural life be in possession of all my property both real and personal, for the benefit of her and all the children a like.

It is also my will that Mattie Marie Able, daughter of my wife by her first husband share alike equally with my own children in both personal and real estate.

The above will is intended on my part to apply and be in force only so long as my wife remains my widow. It is also my will and desire that all the children be given a colt at the age of 17 years, Mattie Marie Able be given a colt also. It is my will further that my own children be furnished a watch not to exceed fifteen dollars. Mattie Marie Able having been given her watch.

Should my wife die before I do, then I reserve the right to revoke this will in part or in whole as I think proper.

This the 23rd June 1908.
