

1903

L. B. Hargraves
F. C. Bailey,

Jefferson, Buchanan County Court.

Regular Term Dec 20 1903.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John C. Bailey, deceased, having been produced to court, and duly sworn by the oath of L. B. Hargraves and F. C. Bailey, the attesting witnesses thereto, and the same was established as and for the last will and testament of John C. Bailey, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest: J. H. Cook, Clerk.

I, Charles Allen Addison, of the county of Buchanan, State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and desiring to make a different disposition of my earthly effects, other than that made by the Statutes of descent and distribution under the laws of the State of Kentucky, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills I may have made,

I give and devise to my beloved wife, Nannie E. Addison the farm on which I now live, said farm containing 79 acres of land, in the county of Buchanan, State of Kentucky, and formerly being a part of the old Jack Snipes land

I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Nannie E. Addison, all of my personal property of every kind, nature and description whatsoever, whether it may consist of chattels money notes or bonds, I mean that my death my beloved wife Nannie E. Addison is to have absolutely to her own use and benefit all of my earthly effects, whether they be real personal or mixed of every kind, nature whatsoever, with full power to sell any or all of the things herein willed to her, to convert

First,

Second,

Third

Fourth,

the proceeds thereof to her own use, or to reinvest the same as she may see fit,

I hereby appoint my beloved wife, Nannie E. Addison as sole executor of this my last will and testament, without any bond, being required of her, with the full power to sell, dispose of or manage the property herein devised to her as aforesaid,

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this the 25th day of August 1903,

Charles Allen Addison

Signed and acknowledged by Charles Allen Addison in our presence, and by us, attesting witnesses in his presence, and in the presence of each other,

Jos Brown,
Alvin McMillan,

Jefferson,

Buchanan County Court

Regular Term Dec 20 1903,

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Charles Allen Addison deceased, having been produced to court, and duly sworn by the oath of Jos Brown, and Alvin A. McMillan, the attesting witnesses thereto, and the same was established as and for the last will and testament of Charles Allen Addison, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded,

Attest,

J. H. Cook, Clerk,

Constantine Ky, January the 2, 1899, in the name of God, amen. I Bartholomew E. Horn of Buchanan Co. Ky. sound mind, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament to wit to my daughter Mary Etta Horn. I, this day bequeath E. Horn, will, my real estate, and personal property and farm lying west of Jonas Gray, part of the Paul-baister farm. Constantine, it came perhaps of John L. Gray 3 acres was purchased by son spreading so will, my daughter Mary Etta Horn my containing 61 acres and all my interior personal property containing horses cattle, sheep, hogs farming your

and house hold and kitchen furniture, all note and accounts and money I. Cathage E. Horn, wife Isaac Horn, daughter Lucy Horn one dollar. I. Cathage E.
Horn will my remainders. To Mary E. Horn To have and to hold and dispose of as she thinks proper. Cathage E. Horn, I. appoint M. H. Kiser as Greiff to inform my will and put to record and enforced after my death,
Cathage E. Horn,

this January 2 1897,
Witness, M. H. Kiser,
Also Kiser,

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court,

Regular Term July 22-1904

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Cathage E. Horn deceased, having been produced to court and duly examined by the ^{deposition} of Ada Kiser, an attesting witness thereto, and the same was established as and for the last will and testament of Cathage E. Horn, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest J. H. Hoar, Clerk,

J. Margaret J. Boord, widow of Gerra B. Boord of the county of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, hereby renewer the will of said Gerra B. Boord, and relinquish what is given me under said will, and such to take my dower and distributable share of said Boord's estate under the statute law of the State of Kentucky, as if no will had been made,

Witness my hand, this the 22nd day of February 1904,
Attest, M. Estridge, Margaret J. Boord,

State of Kentucky }
County of Breckinridge } st.

J. H. Hoar, Clerk of the county court, for the County and State of Kentucky, certify that the foregoing instrument of writing, was produced to me in my court and acknowledged and delivered by Margaret Boord, to be her act & deed, Given under my hand, this the 22nd day of Feb'y 1904

J. H. Hoar Clerk,

Examined by

I, Joseph E. Miller, now of Harrod, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, do make constitute, and declare this to be my last will and testament, making any and all other will or wills, should, ^{any} be in existence,

I

First, I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Mary Miller, all of my property, be it, money, real estate or whatsoever kind or character, to be hers absolutely but subject however to the following restrictions, I hereby nominate and request that the Bank of Harrodsburg, shall be and act as trustee for my said wife, and shall have the entire care, control and custody, of all of said property & further that said Bank shall duly let my said wife have such amounts of money from time to time, as her personal necessities may require:
the said trustee being the sole judge of what her necessities may require & to pay her accordingly.

The sole object of this limitation is in order to provent my said wife from being overreached by third parties who may desire to borrow money from her or try to cause her to speculate with same, it being my desire and will that said money shall last her as long as possible and to do her the most good.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name, this 11th day of May, A.D. 1904,

Joseph E. Miller
Subscribed and acknowledged to by the said Joseph E.
Miller, in our presence & we certify that the said will was written in accordance with said testator's directions & after it was written, that it was read to him, and that it was thoroughly understood by him & he acknowledged the same to be his last will and desire & that we subscribed our names as witnesses in presence of the testator and in presence of a shoother, on said date of 11th of May A.D. 1904, J. H. Hoar,