I, John P. Haswell of Hardinsburg Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and desiring to make a different disposition of my property from that which would be made under the law, should I die intestate, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former Wills I may have made.

First, It is my will and desire that all my just debts and funeral Expenses be Paid.

Second, It is my will and desire that my beloved wife, Letitia, shall for the period of her natural life, hold, use and enjoy all the residue, ~~resid~~ and remainder of my property, whether real, personal or mixed. I recommend that my business as merchant be conducted by her and the profits thereof to belong to her. I recommend that she have our son William G. Haswell to assist her in the business.

Third, It is my will and desire, that, at the death of my wife, and after all her just debts and funeral Expenses shall have been paid and payment made for a suitable monument for her, all the rest ~~residua~~ and remainder of my property, of whatever kind or character, shall be equally Divided, among all of my children, subject to the exceptions and provisions contained in paragraphs Four and five of this will. If any of my children shall not be alive at that time, then his share shall ~~descend~~ to his children and vest in them.

Fourth, In consideration of the fact that my son William Godfrey Haswell, has lived with me and assisted me in the conduct of my business, I bequeath and devise to him absolutely in fee simple, the homestead where I now live located on Louisville Street in Hardinsburg, Kentucky, and is the same property deeded to me by Deidami Rusher by deed dated the 20th day of September, 1856 and recorded in the County Court Clerks Office in Deed Book V Page 131. This estate is subject to the life estate of my wife therein.

In addition to this devise, it is my desire that my son William Godfrey Haswell shall also share equally with my other children in all my other property.

Fifth, During my lifetime, I have made advancement to my son Francis Haswell. It is my will and desire, that any advancements I may have made to any of my children, shall be charged against him or them, and the same shall be considered and charged against him or them in the division of my Estate under this will but no interest shall be charged on any of the amounts I may have advanced.

I nominate and appoint my son Coleman E. Haswell Executor of this will, and request that he be permitted to qualify as such, without surety on his bond.

Seventh, This will is written wholly in my own hand and in my place of business.

In testimony whereof, I have herewith set my hand & seal this 14th day of July, 1904.

John P. Haswell, Sr.

State of Kentucky,
