

I, Huston Miller of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all other will or wills that I may have heretofore made.

FIRST, I desire that all of my just debts if there are any at the time of my death, shall be paid.

SECOND, I will, devise, and bequeath to my sister Mary K. Baker, wife of Samuel Baker, to my Nieces Margaret A. Hook, wife of T.J. Hook, Mary A. Monarch, wife of John A. Monarch, Inabell Board, wife of Dr. Milton Board, to Ruth Miller daughter of my deceased Nephew, George P. Miller, and to my Nephew Cyrus Miller, all of that part of my estate, that descended to me, or was received by me, from the estate of my two deceased Brothers viz: James Miller and John Miller, all to share and share alike.

THIRD, I will and devise to my Nephew Cyrus Miller my undivided one half interest in the home farm owned jointly by my brother Matthias Miller and myself containing about 767 acres, but in the event Cyrus Miller should die childless said land to revert back to the children and heirs of my brother Matthias Miller, and should said Matthias Miller want to occupy, cultivate or control all of my said home farm, during his life, it is my will and desire that he do so, and in that event said Cyrus Miller will not come in possession of said half interest until after the death of said Matthias Miller.

FOURTH, I will, devise, and bequeath to my brother Matthias Miller all the remainder of my estate, real, personal, mixed or partnership, of whatever kind or character.

FIFTH, I hereby appoint my brother Matthias Miller, the executor of my estate. It is my desire that no bond be required of my brother as executor.

Witness my hand, the 4th day of September 1901.

HUSTON MILLER.
