

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court,
Regular Term, May, 27th, 1897.

The foregoing instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will of Martha Wolverton, Deed, was this day produced to Court, and duly proven by the oaths of J. S. Payne and M. P. Payne, the two attesting witnesses thereto, and established as such for the last will of said Martha Wolverton, Deed, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate hath been duly recorded.

Attest: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B. C. C.

Examined.

Know all men by these presents that I Griffin S. Dowell, of the County of Breckenridge & State of Kentucky, being in bad health, but of sound mind and memory do make and publish the following my last will and testament. I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Nellie K. Dowell all of my property, real and personal, that I may possess at the time of my death, to hold in her own right for her use and benefit so long as she remains my widow, but in case she should marry again, I will that she shall hold one third of all my property, real and personal, during her lifetime, but at her death to be equally divided among my heirs. I will that the executor of this will shall have legal authority to sell and convey two tracts of land one lying on the East side of my home place and containing fifty three acres which has been surveyed and corners established and marked, the second a tract of land conveyed to me from John Kasey one third of the proceeds of this land to be paid to my wife the rest to be equally divided among my children. I appoint my son G. S. Dowell as executor of my will. I hereunto set my hand and seal, this twenty ninth (29) day of August 1892.

G. S. Dowell.

Witnesses - R. C. Martin -
Griffin Kasey.

Codicil to the above will of G. S. Dowell.

Be it understood that I have sold & conveyed to Alvie Bennett & Richard Bennett a certain tract of land containing one hundred & six - four acres, lying on the Southside of my farm. For which they give their notes amounting to one thousand & sixteen dollars ($1016) which such increase I die before it is collected is payable to my wife.

Witnesses - R. C. Martin,
Griffin Kasey.

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court,
Regular Term, May 17th, 1897.

The foregoing instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of G. S. Dowell, Deed, was this day produced to Court, and duly proven by the oaths of R. C. Martin and Griffin Kasey, and the Codicil to same was proven by the oaths of said Martin and Kasey the two attesting witnesses, and was established as such for the last will and testament of said G. S. Dowell, Deed, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate hath been duly recorded.

Attest: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B. C. C.

Examined

I Charles Douglass of Breckenridge County Kentucky being of sound mind and memory make this my last will:

First All my debts and funeral expenses to be paid out of my estate.

Second, to my beloved wife Fannie Douglass I will my land being my home place during her life, after her death the same is to go to my daughter Wesley Anna Briscoe forever.

I give to Fannie Douglass in addition to the life interest in the land above mentioned one boy horse, also one cow.

Third, I give to Ella Miller one calf.

Fourth, the balance of my property I desire to be divided equally among my children.

Charles Douglass x

Witnessed by

W. H. Board, Fred Roberts.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term, Sept. 20th 1897.

The foregoing instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will of Chas. Douglass, Decd, was this day produced to Court, and duly proven by the oaths of W. H. Board and Fred Roberts, the two attesting witnesses thereto, and established as and for the last will of the said Chas. Douglass, Decd, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate hath been duly recorded.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B. C.

Examined

I Robert Payne of the County of Breckinridge, State of Kentucky do make this my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all former wills I may have made.

I first give my soul to god who gave it - then I will to my son Mat P. Payne my house tract of land on which I now reside containing about one hundred & eighty five acres more or less - for a full description of the same see record in the Breckinridge County Clerk's office - with all my house hold & kitchen furniture of every sort & carroctor and all the stock on the farm & all farming implement & tools now on the farm to be his & his legal heirs for ever I make this special gift & devise to my son Mat P. Pay - to compensate him for remaining with myself & his mother Nancy Payne up to this time & he obligating himself to remain with us as long as we live and to take care of both myself & wife as long as we live & to furnish us all necessary for a comfortable living except that I am to clothe myself & my wife and my wife are to occupy the dwelling or as much of the same as will be necessary to make us comfortable as long as we live. Mat P. Payne is to pay the tax on the farm discribe in this will and all the stock from this date, and at my death I desire that all my children shall be made equal out of what real & personal estate I may have at my death not to interfere with the gift to Mat P. Payne as my children are numerous I will not name them by name in this will but will include them all each one to account for any and all advancement I have made to them I desire at my death that to have a respectable Burial for my self & also for my wife at here death & all my just debts to be paid out of my estate by my Executors I now appoint my two sons Mat P. Payne & Moses B. Payne Executors to carry out this my last will with full power to amend this my last will & testament into effect & to make deeds of conveyance to my real estate I may have at my death given under hand this 17th day of March 1896.

I desire the Court shall not require any security from my Executors.

Robert Payne

W^m H. Scott

M. Board

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term, Sept. 20th 1897.

The foregoing instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Robert Payne, Decd, was this day produced to Court, and duly proven by the oaths of W^m H. Scott and M. Board the two attesting witnesses thereto, and established as and for the last will and testament of the said Robert Payne, Decd, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate hath been duly recorded.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B. C.