

I, Cordelia Rhodes, of the County of Breckinridge and state of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory hereby make this my last will and testament hereby ~~revoking all other wills heretofore made by me.~~ revoking all other wills heretofore made by me.

FIRST: It is my will that my just debts and funeral expenses be paid,

SECOND: I will and devise to my beloved husband Thomas A Rhodes all my estate real and personal and of whatever kind and character, that I may die seized and possessed of or in which I may have any interest, to dispose of in any manner he may see fit after the payment of my debts and funeral expenses.

THIRD: I, hereby appoint my husband, Thomas Rhodes Executor of my estate and as he is sole beneficiary thereof, I request the court not to require bonds of him.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name this 18th day of November, 1901.

CORDELIA RHODES.

Subscribed and acknowledged before us as witnesses this November 18th 1901.

Allen R. Kincheloe.

William K. Barnes.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term, Oct, 1910.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Cordelia Rhodes, deceased, was this day produced to court, and duly proven by the oath of Allen R. Kincheloe, one of the attesting witnesses thereto, who states on his oath, that he signed said will at the request of the testator and further states that W. K. Barnes the other attesting witness, also signed said will at the request of the testator, and further that they signed it in her presence and in the presence of each other, whereupon it is established as and for the last will and testament of Cordelia Rhodes, and as such was ordered to record, and the same, together with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Given under my hand, this 25th day of Oct, 1910.

H. M. BEARD. CLERK.

I, Charles Hayden, of the County of Breckinridge and state of Kentucky, make this my last will.

1st: It is my will at my death that all my just debts be paid.

2nd, Then I desire and bequeath to me wife Mary Louisa Haden all of my real and personal property, during her natural life for support and benefit.

3rd, at her death I desire to Joseph Gabril Nevitt and ~~his~~ children my wives oldest son Twenty (20) acres of my land, to be allotted along side of the tract he now owns.

4th: I, further devise to James Henry Nevitt, and his children the rest of my land about one hundred and twenty (120) acres be the same more or less.

Should I survive my wife and dont codicil this will it is my will that the provision as above stated be carried out in full.

5th, at the death of me and my wife it is my will that all of my personal property be divided between the said Joseph Gabril Nevitt and James Henry Nevitt equally.

In Testimony Whereof, I hereby sign my name this the 12 day of September 1910.

^{his}
CHARLES X HADEN.

Attest: J. B. Frymire.

Attest: V. J. Humbert.

Attest: Wilton Adlissson.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term. Oct 24th 1910.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Charles Hayden, deed, was this day produced to court, and duly proven by the oath of V. J. Humbert and Wilton Adlissson, who states on oath that they, each of them signed said will at the request of the testator, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, and further that J. B. Frymire also signed said will as a witness thereto, in the presence, and at the request of the testator, and in their presence, whereupon it is established as and for the last will and testament of Charles Hayden, deed, and as such was ordered to record, and the same, together with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Given under my hand, this 25th day of Oct, 1910.

H. M. BEARD. CLERK.