

Examined.

I, Mary A. Jordan, of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, widow of Willis G. Jordan, do hereby renounce the provisions of the will of said Willis G. Jordan, and elect to take of the estate of said Jordan as his widow, as provided by the Statute Laws of the State of Kentucky, and the law governing in such cases, and claims and assert my rights in said Jordan's estate, and all rights, interest, ~~interest~~ and claims I may have against said estate as a creditor of said Willis G. Jordan.

Witness my hand, this 20th day of June, 1896,
 Mary A. Jordan.

State of Kentucky,
 County of Breckinridge, Sd.

I, Owen Cunningham, Clerk of the Breckinridge County Court, do certify that the foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to me in my County and acknowledged before me by Mary A. Jordan to be her act and deed, and the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my said office.

Given under my hand, this 20th day of June, 1896.
 Owen Cunningham, Clerk.

Examined.

Febr 18th, 1895.

I Charles Miller Sr make this my will and put to record the amounts that I have given to my children to all that married I have given alike a horse now and bed so that leaves James W. Miller entitled to choice of some beds having given him a horse heretofore to John H. Miller I have given money to pay for ~~half~~ half of the farm on which he lives which amounted to twelve hundred dollars two hundred of which he paid back to me. I also hold several notes against him amounting to several hundred dollars with a policy that I had taken out on his life for the benefit of his children or it may heirs which I don't just now remember no matter the out standing notes I wish paid out of my personal property with all other debts that I may owe at my death the above amounts named I think will be all or maybe more than I will have for the rest of my children still it is my will that he John H. Miller is to be free from any claim from any of any my heirs but if on investigation he has not got an equal share he is to be made equal out of my estate for I only make this record to avoid any misunderstanding. I have 770 acres of land in home place of which I will deed 270 to Matthias & Charles M. Miller and their bodily heirs 130 to Matthias and 140 to Charles M. which I value to them at $11.00 per acre they having agreed on a division as above named Charles M. paying Matthias $250 for difference in improvement. This leaves 500 acres of my home place out of which my other children viz Annie Parke James W. Miller and Nannie Lesieur is to be made equal to Matthias and Charles M. with same title as theirs in case I should die before my wife there will be found in the safe at B.F. Parke our marriage contract that will explain how to divide my personal property.

Charles Miller.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
 Regular Term, June 20, 1896.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Charles Miller, Decd., was this day produced to Court, and the ~~writing in the~~ body of said instrument and the signature thereto being duly proven by the oaths of Will, Matthias & James W. Miller and Milton Boorby Sr, was established as and for the last will and testament of said Charles Miller, Decd., and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate hath been duly recorded.

Attest: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B.C.C.

Examined.

An agreement made and entered into between Charles Miller of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky & Catharine Jones of the same County & State witnesseth that the aforesaid Charles Miller & Catharine Jones have agreed to become husband & wife on the following terms to viz Charles Miller agrees to marry ^{said} Catharine Jones and to be to her a husband in all respects and the said Catharine agrees to become his wife on the same terms - and as both parties have children by former marriages now to prevent all misunderstanding or hard feelings as far as possible we enter into this written agreement both parties agree to unite there all of property for the payment of all debts owned by either party and for the support and education of these children of each party - said Charles Miller to take charge of the property of the said Catharine & pay all her debts and to take her children that are under age and to be to them a father and to treat them with kindness and affection feeds cloths & send to school & otherwise provide for them as if they were his own so long as they remain with him & render that obedience & respect due him as a parent - said Catharine agrees to surrender all her property into the hands of the aforesaid Charles Miller for the purpose hereafter stated for him to have and to hold to use as his own in all ways with the exception of her Real Estate of which she is now possessed she retaining the right to sell & convey the same at any time and in case of her death it is to revert back to her bodily heirs said Charles Miller to have no part in the same - and in case of the death of the said Charles Miller - she the said Catharine is to have no claim on his real estate But at his death it is to fall to his Bodily heirs But the said Catharine is to have one third of the personal property of which the undersigned party may be possessed at the time of his death after his debts are paid this article entered into this the sixteenth day of October eighteen hundred and seventy-six.

Charles Miller,
Cate Jones.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term June 20-1895.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to Court and proven by the oath of Milton Board, Sr, and ordered to be recorded.

which is now done accordingly.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B.C.C.

Examined.

I Barthshela Martin of the County of Breckinridge State of Kentucky do make this my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all former wills I may have made.

At my death I want my son, Samuel Whitworth to see that I am dressed in white flannel gown & undershirt go and get a coffin & around at either place Leitchfield or Big Spring, white hose & gloves white silk handkerchief tied on my head, no shoes then perhaps two stones to place at head & foot of my grave which must be by the side of my first husband near Garfield, Ky. I also want grave stones put at the head & foot of both my husbands Samuel Whitworth & James F. Martin I hereby appoint my son, Samuel Whitworth my executrix to sell all my real & personal estate need renew the same then pay all above named burial expense and my just debts should there be any. Also my son Samuel is to have pay for his services as executor of this my will. The remainder is then to be equally divided with all my children, should there be infant heirs at my death my son Samuel is to hold these portions and not pay interest on same until they become of age he is to transact this business without being required to give bond I do hereby constitute and appoint my son Samuel Whitworth executor of this my last will and testament.

In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 20th day of April 1895.

Barthshela ^{Barthshela} Martin.

Signed and acknowledged by Barthshela Martin in our presence.

J. F. Armes,
Rachel L. Daugherty.