 I, Charles E. Whitworth, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and being desirous of making a different disposition of my property from that which would be made by law should I die intestate, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills which I may have heretofore made.

First. It is my will that all my just debts including my funeral expenses be paid first, I also desire a suitable monument erected to my memory, to cost not exceeding the sum of Seventy five dollars.

Second. I will bequeath and devise all the rest, remainder and residue of my property of whatsoever kind or character wherever situated to my beloved wife Hester Whitworth, but only so long as she shall remain my widow, if she shall survive me and remain unmarried, she shall continue to enjoy the use and benefit of all my property as long as she shall live.

Third. In the event that my wife shall survive me and shall again marry after my death, then it is my will that all of my property shall at once descend to my brothers and sisters equally, if any of my brothers or sisters shall be dead at that time and shall leave any issue, the said issue shall only take under this will what would have been the portion of their father or mother had either been alive.

Fourth. In the event that my wife shall survive me and remain unmarried till the time of her death, then after her death, it is my will that all of my property of all kinds shall at once become the absolute property of my brothers and sisters, equally, if any of my brothers or sisters shall be dead at that time and shall leave any issue, the said issue shall only take, under this will, what have been the portion of their father or mother, had either been alive.

Fifth. In the event that my wife shall be dead at the time of my death, then it is my will that all of my property of all kinds, shall at once, upon my death, become the absolute property of my brothers and sisters, equally, if any of my brothers or sisters shall be dead at that time and shall leave any issue, such issue shall only take, under this will, what would have been the portion of their father or mother, had either been alive.

Sixth. I hereby appoint my wife, Hester Whitworth, executrix of this will and I request that she be permitted to qualify as such, without being required to execute bond.

Witness my hand and seal this the 13th day of April, 1909.
